Street Job at School Site On Council's Priority List

City Council last night indicated it will give high priority and considerable thought to the evident need for street improvements along Nicholas Drive.

The lawmakers are fully aware that immediate steps must be taken. This outlook is pressed home with realization that Circleville's new high school in the near vicinity is scheduled for completion in 1966. An athletic field also will be erected at the site.

Means of handling anticipated traffic appears to be the upmost problem. The solons are agreed that Nicholas Drive, in its present condition, and other nearby street facilities are not capable of handling the task at hand.

An initial improvement program has already been launched. Frank Baum, a representative from Burgess & Niple Consulting Engineers, was present Tuesday night to ask Council what it wants in regard to preparation of plans and specifications.

A DETAILED look at the picture was recommended by Council President Harold Clifton. He suggested that Mayor Ben Gordon set up a meeting with Council's Service Committee, the service director, safety director, school officials and Baum.

The mayor indicated the meeting will be scheduled. Safety Director Miller Fissell said the police department is now conducting studies of a traffic control nature.

Fissell added that it might be feasible to purchase an additional section of land adjacent to Fairview Ave. This, he said, would provide an area for right turns.

Solicitor Kenneth Robbins questioned the extent of improvements that have previously been suggested, especially street widths. He suggested a detailed study prior to school construction as a means of avoiding future difficulties.

Satellite To Be 'Switchboard'

'Early Bird' To Aid Communications

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla., (AP) — The pioneering Early Bird communications satellite raced today toward an outpost where it is to become a switchboard for the first public utility spawned by the space age.

Officials of the Communications Satellite Corp. — Comsat — were elated over early success of the flight propelled by a three-stage rocket fired Tuesday night.

Nine days of tricky orbit-shifting maneuvers must be accomplished before Early Bird reaches its roosting place 22,300 miles above the Atlantic Ocean.

It will appear to hover motionless directly over the equator to provide continuous communications traffic between North America and Europe.

The first satellite designed for commercial use was injected into an elliptical orbit ranging from 800 to 22,900 miles.

In midmorning Thursday, a ground signal is to ignite a motor aboard the craft to shift it into a circular path in which both high and low points would be about 22,300 miles.

Ground controllers then are to fire small gas jets aboard the satellite for a week to nudge it gingerly toward its stationary position.

The launching was the first venture into space for Comsat, a business partnership of communications interests in 45 nations headed by the United States. The utility plans to have a global space communications network in operation in 1967.

If successful, Early Bird will open a new era in the history of communications. For the first time, the public will be able to use a satellite by making transatlantic telephone calls.

Comsat, with 137,000 stockholders, paid the National Aeronautics and Space Administration $3.33 million, regardless of success or failure, to launch Early Bird.

The corporation plans about June 1 to put the satellite into commercial operation for relaying radio, television, teletype and telephone messages.

With 240 two-way voice communications channels, the 85-pound satellite has the potential of earning $10 million in its first year.

Funnel Cloud Hits 2 Areas in Ohio

URBANA, Ohio (AP)—A funnel cloud that was spotted near Richmond, Ind., late Tuesday night moved into Ohio and did damage in two small communities, the U. S. Weather Bureau at Columbus reported.

It touched down in Fletcher, near Piqua in Miami County and a short time later in Miller town in Champaign County. The weather bureau said a barn was knocked down by the small twister in Fletcher, and that the porch of a house was torn off and a truck moved 50 feet.

At Millersburg it blew over two old barns, downed trees and telephone lines and damaged two houses.

facilities. One of his recommendations was a survey of anticipated traffic.

The Nicholas Drive job is one of two street projects on the Council docket. A program also is under way for improvements along Atwater Ave. north of Wilson Ave.

In the way of committee reports, solon John Jenkins reported that the traffic light at the three-way intersection of Main St., Mingo St., and Lancaster Pike has been changed. He said a few adjustments are needed before the new system goes into operation.

JENKINS also noted that the Basic Construction Co. at Pickaway and Corwin Sts. is in the process of clearing off the land surrounding its plant. The move is being taken to eliminate mud and dust problems in the area.

In the way of general comments, Councilman David Crawford directed attention toward the new tennis courts that are being erected at Ted Lewis Park. Boyd Horn requested a check be made on surface water problems that exist at Washington and Town Sts. and points on south.

Mayor Gordon's appointment of Mrs. Thomas McGuire, 295 Sunset Drive, as a member of the City Health Board, was confirmed. Her term will extend to 1970.

Chaplin Son Now Getting Opportunities

LONDON (AP) — Opportunity is knocking and knocking and knocking for Charlie Chaplin's beatnik son since the newspapers found out he and his family were on relief in London.

A novice agent signed Michael Chaplin to a contract Tuesday, hoping to make a best-selling singer out of him. The agent, Andy Wood, 31, said Michael, 19, wouldn't get any wages "for a couple of weeks, but I'll give them enough cash to keep the wolf from the door."

Michael is also to have a screen test for the part of a beatnik in the movie "Promise Her Anything," now being filmed in London. It stars Warren Beatty and Leslie Caron.

Young Chaplin also had offers from foreign newspapers and magazines for his life story.

Michael, son of the film star and his wife, Oona, married a 24-year-old British actress in Scotland in February after his father refused them permission to marry in Spain. They have a six-month-old son.

The family has been drawing $28 a week relief money for a month because, Michael said, he couldn't get a job as an actor. His mother, arriving in London over the weekend, said she wouldn't indulge him in a beatnik life and he ought to get a job.

Johnson Report Coming Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will deliver a major statement of U.S. policy on the Vietnamese war tonight in an apparent move to encourage peace efforts by a group of 17 nonaligned countries.

The speech, scheduled for delivery at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, is believed to have been decided upon by the President at this time also to serve three other purposes:

1. Emphasize what officials call the "peace track" of U.S. policy at a time when American and South Vietnamese bombings of North Viet Nam are slowly closing in on the Hanoi area. Air strikes against North Viet Nam began exactly two months ago today on Feb. 7 and about 20 have now been made. Johnson reportedly wants to remind the world that the aim of his strategy in this respect is not a wider war but security for South Viet Nam.

2. Respond to fears and criticisms about U.S. policy which have been expressed by public figures in this country and government leaders abroad. One of the chief points of criticism is that the conflict in Southeast Asia could get out of hand and explode into a big war.

3. Indicate to whatever extent he considers wise at this time some of the U.S. guidelines for an approach to negotiations and the issues that would have to be resolved in reaching a successful agreement.

The President's address will be carried to the nation by television and radio at 9 p.m. EST.

This will be Johnson's second major Vietnamese policy statement, laying stress on peace hopes, within two weeks. On March 25 the White House released a statement which it said the President had presented to a Cabinet meeting in which he declared the United States would not be second to any country in seeking an honorable peace. He also opened up the possibility of U.S. economic assistance to a peaceful Southeast Asia in which Communist North Viet Nam might share.

A new element was injected into the crisis last Thursday when the heads of government of 17 countries, including India, Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic, petitioned the United States and the Communist powers as well as all other directly interested countries with an appeal to start negotiations "as soon as possible without posing any preconditions."

Senate Eyes Education Bill

OK by Friday Upper House Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today took up President Johnson's proposal to assist deprived children by giving $1.3 billion in federal aid to the nation's elementary and secondary schools.

Nobody laid a glove on the measure in the Senate Education and Labor Committee and Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield hopes to have it passed by Friday. The question is whether the bill can sidestep amendments from the floor.

The President's priority program has had a charmed life so far in this first session of the 89th Congress.

The House Education Committee was the last to tinker with the bill. It tightened the language to make sure that even though parochial schools will benefit all aid will be administered through public schools. It broadened coverage to include 215,000 children of relief families.

The House committee then passed the bill March 2 by a vote of 23 to 8, the Rules Committee sent it to the House floor March 22 by an 8-7 vote and the House turned down more than 30 amendments and approved it March 26 by a 263-153 vote.

The Senate traditionally has been friendlier to federal aid to education than the House. Since it is expected to get greater Republican support in the Senate than it had in the House — GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he may vote "aye" although House GOP leaders voted "no" — passage appears certain.

But Johnson wants more than this. He wants the bill passed without amendment. Then the House and Senate measures would be identical. There would be no need to take time to resolve differences in a conference committee and he could quickly sign the bill into law.

Most of the proposed Senate floor changes are expected to come from the Republican side.

Reputed Klan Aides Named

Detroit Woman Rightist Is Victim

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Three Birmingham white men allegedly linked with the Ku Klux Klan surrendered to a U.S. marshal today following their indictment by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to violate the rights of a slain civil rights worker.

Named in the indictment returned Tuesday in Montgomery were Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, of suburban Fairfield; Eugene Thomas, 42, and William Orville Easton, 41, both of Besmer.

A fourth white man originally arrested in connection with the slaying of Viola Gregg Liuzzo of Detroit was not named in the indictment. He is Gary Thomas Rowe Jr., 35, of Birmingham.

The three are charged with conspiring to violate the constitutional rights of the Detroit housewife who was shot to death the night of March 24. The shooting occurred in rural Lowndes County as Mrs. Liuzzo was shuttling back to Selma persons who had participated in the voter rights march on Montgomery.

President Johnson in announcing the initial arrests the day after the slaying identified Wilkins, Thomas, Eaton and Rowe as members of the Ku Klux Klan. Johnson coupled the announcement with a declaration of war on the Klan.

Conviction on the civil rights charges could result in prison terms of up to 10 years and fines up to $5,000.

Carey Quits As Head of Big Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — His reelection ruled illegal by the Labor Department, James B. Carey resigns today as president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, Paul J. Jennings is expected to succeed him.

For Carey, president of the union since its founding in 1949, it appears to be the beginning of the end as an important force on the labor scene.

For Jennings, a founder of the union and a member of its executive board, it is a day of vindication and triumph. He has been trying to depose Carey for years. The Labor Department now has said after a recount of ballots, he — not Carey — should have been installed as president Jan. 1.

Carey, 53, said Tuesday in submitting his resignation to the AFL-CIO union's executive board:

"I have come to the painful conclusion that I can best serve our beloved union's future, its unity and solidarity and its capacity for advancing the interests of all electrical workers by resigning my position as president of the IUE."

The board is expected to accept the resignation and name Jennings to his place as $25,500-a-year head of the 400,000-member union.

Warren County Boy Killed in Gun Mishap

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Warren County authorities today continued their investigation of a tragedy at nearby Maimeville, where a 12-year-old boy was shot dead Tuesday, apparently by accident.

Sheriff's deputies said the dead boy's 14-year-old brother was loading the shotgun on the back porch when the gun discharged. Deputies refused to release the youngsters' names.

Police Test Drinking And Driving

SPARKS, Nev. (AP) — A Reno police officer served drinks to 10 men and women and then watched them get into autos and drive away.

LT. Don McKillip said several did not have enough alcohol in their blood to be judged legally intoxicated.

Driving was limited to an obstacle course set up in a parking lot. Officers and doctors carefully recorded performances, both Monday when the drivers were sober and Tuesday when they were under the influence of up to a dozen common mixed drinks each.

The tests indicated some folks can drink more than others.

Madeline Cherry, 22, a Reno housewife, drank eight vodka and orange-juice cocktails in a two-hour period and drove smoothly around the course with just a few errors.

Ed Epper, a Reno police officer, took nine drinks and had trouble getting his car door unlocked. Judges stopped him in the middle of the test because his driving was so erratic.

No one can drive better with a couple drinks under his belt, concluded LT. A. E. Hagler of the Idaho State Police, who observed the test.

Britons on Spend Spree

LONDON (AP) — Britons went on a spending spree Tuesday night to beat the new taxes on cigarettes and liquor. Bars, liquor stores and tobacconists reported: "It's just like Christmas."

Customers lined up at cigarette stores, buying several cartons at a time. Starting today, they cost 76 cents, 7 cents a pack more.

Liquor stores reported a brisk demand for all varieties of spirits. A bottle today cost an extra 56 cents, eclipsing the recent price war cuts.

Beer in the pubs went up a penny. Road taxes on private cars increased $7 a year, to $49. Tax deductions for businessmen's cars were reduced by wiping out the initial allowance of 30 per cent of the purchase price.

Air strikes against North Viet Nam began exactly two months ago today on Feb. 7 and about 20 have now been made. Johnson reportedly wants to remind the world that the aim of his strategy in this respect is not a wider war but security for South Viet Nam.

2. Respond to fears and criticisms about U.S. policy which have been expressed by public figures in this country and government leaders abroad. One of the chief points of criticism is that the conflict in Southeast Asia could get out of hand and explode into a big war.

3. Indicate to whatever extent he considers wise at this time some of the U.S. guidelines for an approach to negotiations and the issues that would have to be resolved in reaching a successful agreement.

The President's address will be carried to the nation by television and radio at 9 p.m. EST. This will be Johnson's second major Vietnamese policy statement, laying stress on peace hopes, within two weeks. On March 25 the White House released a statement which it said

2 Men Face Rape Charge

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Butler County authorities held two men today on charges of rape and abduction for immoral purposes in connection with the criminal assault and beating of a seven-year-old Hamilton girl.

Prosecutor Richard Wessel said the charges against both Lester Amburgy, 21, South Lebanon, and Raymond Ross Holt, 30, West Chester, would be referred to the grand jury. Courtroom observers expected the charges against Amburgy to be dismissed.

Amburgy was arrested March 30 and police said he first admitted and then denied the charge. His account of the incident also contained discrepancies, officers said. Holt was arrested Sunday and has denied any knowledge of the rape March 25.

Councilman Irked By His Daughter

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — "The judge should call her back and give her the fine and punishment she deserves," snapped Councilman Edward Broadhurst.

Who was the councilman talking about so caustically? None other than his 22-year-old daughter, Billie, who was arrested Monday for doing 80 miles an hour on the Akron Expressway.

Miss Broadhurst spent Monday night in jail because her father refused to bail her out.

When the girl came before Municipal Court Judge Evan J. Reed Tuesday, the judge ordered her to attend a driver improvement clinic for the next four Fridays and to report back to him May 1.

Lima Coach Factory Strike Is Called Off

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Nearly all of the 800 Superior Coach employees at the bus manufacturing company in Lima returned to work today, ending an eight-day strike.

Spokesmen for Local 711 of the United Auto Workers said in Lima that 83 percent of the men had ratified a new contract providing better pensions, holiday benefits and insurance. The strike began March 29.

Reputed Klan Aides Named

Detroit Woman Rightist Is Victim

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Three Birmingham white men allegedly linked with the Ku Klux Klan surrendered to a U.S. marshal today following their indictment by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to violate the rights of a slain civil rights worker.

Named in the indictment returned Tuesday in Montgomery were Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, of suburban Fairfield; Eugene Thomas, 42, and William Orville Easton, 41, both of Besmer.

A fourth white man originally arrested in connection with the slaying of Viola Gregg Liuzzo of Detroit was not named in the indictment. He is Gary Thomas Rowe Jr., 35, of Birmingham.

The three are charged with conspiring to violate the constitutional rights of the Detroit housewife who was shot to death the night of March 24. The shooting occurred in rural Lowndes County as Mrs. Liuzzo was shuttling back to Selma persons who had participated in the voter rights march on Montgomery.

President Johnson in announcing the initial arrests the day after the slaying identified Wilkins, Thomas, Eaton and Rowe as members of the Ku Klux Klan. Johnson coupled the announcement with a declaration of war on the Klan.

Conviction on the civil rights charges could result in prison terms of up to 10 years and fines up to $5,000.

Carey Quits As Head of Big Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — His reelection ruled illegal by the Labor Department, James B. Carey resigns today as president of the International Union of Electrical Workers. Paul J. Jennings is expected to succeed him.

For Carey, president of the union since its founding in 1949, it appears to be the beginning of the end as an important force on the labor scene.

For Jennings, a founder of the union and a member of its executive board, it is a day of vindication and triumph. He has been trying to depose Carey for years. The Labor Department now has said after a recount of ballots, he — not Carey — should have been installed as president Jan. 1.

Carey, 53, said Tuesday in submitting his resignation to the AFL-CIO union's executive board:

"I have come to the painful conclusion that I can best serve our beloved union's future, its unity and solidarity and its capacity for advancing the interests of all electrical workers by resigning my position as president of the IUE."

The board is expected to accept the resignation and name Jennings to his place as $25,500-a-year head of the 400,000-member union.

Warren County Boy Killed in Gun Mishap

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Warren County authorities today continued their investigation of a tragedy at nearby Mainville, where a 12-year-old boy was shot dead Tuesday, apparently by accident.

Sheriff's deputies said the dead boy's 14-year-old brother was loading the shotgun on the back porch when the gun discharged. Deputies refused to release the youngsters' names.

TV Patriarch Dies

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — William King Driggs Sr., 79, patriarch of the King Family television show, died Tuesday after he suffered a stroke.

Police Test Drinking And Driving

SPARKS, Nev. (AP) — A Reno police officer served drinks to 10 men and women and then watched them get into autos and drive away.

Lt. Don McKillip said several did not have enough alcohol in their blood to be judged legally intoxicated.

Driving was limited to an obstacle course set up in a parking lot. Officers and doctors carefully recorded performances, both Monday when the drivers were sober and Tuesday when they were under the influence of up to a dozen common mixed drinks each.

The tests indicated some folks can drink more than others. Madeline Cherry, 22, a Reno housewife, drank eight vodka and orange-juice cocktails in a two-hour period and drove smoothly around the course with just a few errors.

Ed Epper, a Reno police officer, took nine drinks and had trouble getting his car door unlocked. Judges stopped him in the middle of the test because his driving was so erratic.

No one can drive better with a couple drinks under his belt, concluded Lt. A. E. Hagler of the Idaho State Police, who observed the test.

Britons on Spend Spree

LONDON (AP) — Britons went on a spending spree Tuesday night to beat the new taxes on cigarettes and liquor. Bars, liquor stores and tobacconists reported: "It's just like Christmas."

Customers lined up at cigarette stores, buying several cartons at a time. Starting today, they cost 76 cents, 7 cents a pack more.

Liquor stores reported a brisk demand for all varieties of spirits. A bottle today cost an extra 56 cents, eclipsing the recent price war cuts.

Beer in the pubs went up a penny. Road taxes on private cars increased $7 a year, to $49. Tax deductions for businessmen's cars were reduced by wiping out the initial allowance of 30 per cent of the purchase price.

ANNUAL HEARING TESTS — Robert Wellington, speech and hearing therapist for Circleville schools, is currently conducting his annual survey testing program in grades 1-3 at all city schools, with the assistance of several mothers. The preliminary hearing examination is being administered here to Jeff Cockrell at High St. Elementary School by Mrs. William Ankrom (left) and Mrs. Darrel Courtwright. Wellington will personally administer the second half of the test designed to detect hearing problems at an early age. He said an average of 10 cases per year are discovered through the testing program.

Japan Renews Its Symbol Of Friendship to America

WASHINGTON (AP) — A half century ago, another First Lady had the idea of beautifying the nation's capital with cherry trees.

As a result of Mrs. William Howard Taft's interest, the city of Tokyo sent the city of Washington a friendship gift of 3,000 cherry trees.

Planted around the Tidal Basin and Potomac Park, their pink and white blossoms have become a tourist attraction and symbol of spring here.

Now, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, taking a similar interest in beautifying the capital, has drawn a similar gift of thousands more cherry trees from the Japanese government in a renewed symbol of national friendship.

Although the exact number of trees to be donated was not specified, the Japanese ambassador said they would be quite numerous and it was left as an open matter depending on the week.

They will be placed around the grounds of the Washington Monument in a project the National Park Service says will take some 3,000 to 4,000 trees.

Announcement of the new gift was made by Japanese Ambassador Ryuzi Takeuchi at a rainy ceremony Tuesday at which Mrs. Johnson and his wife planted two blooming cherry trees at the Tidal Basin and formally opened the 1965 National Cherry Blossom Festival. A crowd of several hundred turned out, including the 53 pretty festival princesses who sat under umbrellas to watch the 40-minute ceremony of speech and band music.

Chill weather has held back the cherry blossoms so far, but there was hope the trees will burst into bloom by the end of the week.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Takeuchi used a gold-plated presidential spade to plant the two new trees close to the spot where Mrs. Taft and Viscountess Chinda, wife of the then Japanese ambassador, planted the first gift cherry trees in the spring of 1912.

7 Motorists Listed on Court Docket

Circleville Municipal Court's completed traffic docket today listed seven motorists.

Of the seven, one appeared in court and one waived a court hearing and paid the fine levied. The remainder forfeited bonds.

Kelly Kirkland, 46, Byesville, was fined $25 and costs, with $15 of the fine suspended, on a charge of failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead. He was cited by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department following an accident last week.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. had issued the call for the grand jury session three days after the slaying.

While the grand jury was meeting, six Negroes and three whites picketed two Montgomery churches where they allegedly were refused admittance Sunday. There were no incidents or arrests.

The Rev. F. D. Reese, president of the Dallas County Voters League, told a Selma mass meeting Tuesday night that about 10 visiting white clergymen planned to join with the Negroes in an attempted march on the nearby Camden courthouse.

In Washington, Sen. Allan J. Ellender, D-La., insisted President Johnson's vote bill violates the Constitution.

"We hope we will be able to have it amended so as not to have a filibuster," he said, "but if the bill remains as it is, I'm pretty sure we will have a filibuster."

Ellender and Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., were named by 16 Southern senators to appeal to Senate leaders for changes in the proposed bill.

Viet Cong Threatens To Execute Yank

TOKYO (AP) — The Viet Cong broadcast a declaration today that they will execute a captured American civilian if Saigon authorities execute a Viet Cong sabotage team leader arrested in Da Nang.

The American is Gustav C. Hertz, 46, of Leesburg, Va., chief of the U.S. Aid Mission's Public Administration Division in Saigon, who disappeared on a motorbike trip two months ago.

The saboteur is a 24-year-old Vietnamese scheduled to die Thursday. He was seized Sunday night as he was attempting to smuggle plastic explosives, concealed in a transistor radio, into Da Nang's Grand Hotel. Da Nang police listed him as Le Dau.

The Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front, identified him in a statement relayed by Radio Hanoi as Nguyen Van Thai, a carpenter.

"If the U.S. and its henchmen execute Nguyen Van Thai," the broadcast said, "the front will immediately give order to execute G. Hertz, a member of the United States operation mission in South Viet Nam, who is guilty of spying activities and many bloody crimes against the South Vietnamese people."

News of World in Brief

CINCINNATI (AP)—The top of the can of beans was all gooey with thick syrup, but Mrs. Kenneth Shearwood doesn't mind. There was a diamond stuck on the lid.

Mrs. Shearwood said Tuesday a jeweler in suburban Oakley told her the half-karat yellowish stone was worth at least $100.

"When I started to wash off the stuff, I noticed this little object," Mrs. Shearwood said. "The more I washed, the better it looked. My husband said it was a rhinestone, but I wasn't so sure. I took it to the jeweler. The jeweler said it was not a perfect stone, but it looks plenty good to me."

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — When a heart patient is standing on a pier and a crowd makes no move to save a drowning girl, what does he do? "I can't let her drown," Thurman Tullis, 44, told his wife, and jumped in.

Tullis, a carpenter, managed to get Debbie Travis, 6, safely to the pier. But he suffered the second heart attack of his life. Other hands pulled out Debbie, daughter of Mrs. Charles Travis.

Tullis stopped breathing. Four heart specialists at John Sealy Hospital worked on Tullis. For two days he was in critical condition. Hospital spokesmen said Tuesday his condition was satisfactory.

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP) — Incumbent Mayor A. P. Parks was unopposed and polled 943 votes Tuesday, but the man he defeated two years ago, William O. Rardin, received 1,048 write-in votes.

Although there was no open campaign, there was an inkling of what might happen. City Attorney Glen Louderback telephoned the state attorney general's office Monday while Parks and Rardin listened on extensions.

A spokesman said Kansas statutes do not allow a write-in in a city of the first class such as Fort Scott and should Rardin receive more votes, election judges would be required to declare Parks the winner.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Voters elected the first Negro city councilman in San Antonio history Tuesday. He is the Rev. S.H. James, 46, a Baptist minister.

James ran on a ticket backed by the Good Government League, which has controlled the council for a decade. He defeated three opponents.

All the other candidates offered by the league, including incumbent Mayor W. W. McAlister, also won election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson reaffirmed Tuesday night the United States' commitment to "use our science and technology only in the cause of peace and in devotion to the vision of man."

The President spoke after he cut a ribbon to open an exhibit of federal science and engineering called "The Vision of Man" at the Museum of History and Technology of the Smithsonian Institution. The exhibit will run through mid-May and then go on a nationwide tour to stir up interest in government science careers.

"Science and technology may well revolutionize life on earth, not only for a few nations but for all people," Johnson said.

Man Bound To Jury on Larceny Count

James Edward White, 23, of 375 Town St., was bound to the Pickaway Grand Jury under $1,500 bond today by Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

White, charged with the theft of $430 from the Starkey Market, Margaret Lane, entered a plea of guilty during a preliminary hearing.

He indicated he wished to go before Common Pleas Judge William Ammer on a bill of information and waive a grand jury hearing.

Circleville Policemen apprehended White shortly after the theft was reported Monday evening. They said he admitted taking the money, and showed them where he hid the bags containing the cash.

WHITE was recently paroled from the Lebanon Correctional Institute where he was serving a sentence for violation of probation, police said.

Officers reported nearly all the money was recovered. Handling the investigation were Sgt. Leroy Hawks Jr. and Patrolmen Richard Anderson and Dixie Watters.

Stock Prices Are Uneven

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was pretty close to a stalemate once again as prices moved unevenly early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 333.3 with industrials up .1, rails off .4 and utilities up .1.

The tense situation in Berlin and the prospect of a major speech on Viet Nam from President Johnson tonight created a cautious atmosphere.

A slightly easier tendency prevailed among steels and motors. Rails headed irregularly lower.

Selective gains among utilities, nonferrous metals, mail orders, drugs and selected issues helped keep the list on a fairly even keel.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon took a minor loss of .73 at 891.17.

20 Divorces Dismissed

Twenty divorce cases were cleared from the docket at Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today by Judge William Ammer.

The domestic relations cases were dismissed by the court at the outset of the April term, Judge Ammer said. He explained that it is a normal procedure for the court to dismiss divorce cases after several terms of the court have gone by with no action being taken.

In most cases, the judge said, parties of the civil suit have "gone back together" and attorneys fail to make an entry of dismissal.

Judge Ammer said before a case is dismissed, however, attorneys are notified in advance that the dismissal is to be made at the beginning of the next term.

Washington C.H. Resident Found In Ross Woodlot

Wilbur McConaughy, 40, of Washington C.H., missing since Mar. 19, was found wandering in a Ross County woods Sunday afternoon.

McConaughy, a World War II veteran has a history of memory losses and disappearances. He was the subject of an intensive search in Tar Hollow Forest in 1963. He is a former Circleville resident.

Authorities at Chillicothe Veteran's Hospital, where he was taken, say he may face amputation of both feet. They were severely frostbitten.

Ross County Deputy Sheriff Wendell Counts, who found McConaughy, said the man could not identify himself.

The President spoke after he cut a ribbon to open an exhibit of federal science and engineering called "The Vision of Man" at the Museum of History and Technology of the Smithsonian Institution. The exhibit will run through mid-May and then go on a nationwide tour to stir up interest in government science careers.

"Science and technology may well revolutionize life on earth, not only for a few nations but for all people," Johnson said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate approved and sent to the House Tuesday a bill authorizing the spending of more than $15 billion for military hardware and research during the year that starts July 1.

The vote was 85 to 0 on the $15,283,000,000 measure. It is some $13.4 million less than the Defense Department asked.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department is reported working on a bill to regulate consumer packaging. It is expected to provide less strict regulation than a pending Senate bill would.

The Senate measure, sponsored by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., would give the Federal Trade Commission new authority to set standards of weights and measures for packaging commodities. It would also forbid use of "economy size" and "cents off" legends, and deceptive package sizes.

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Two gasoline bombs were hurled into the headquarters of Prime Minister Sean Lemass' party headquarters in Dublin today, bringing a touch of old times to Ireland's national elections.

Bright sunshine brought forecasts of a record poll as the voters chose their 143 members of Parliament and the government for the next five years.

The bombs set the door and hallway of the Fianna Fail building blazing but the fire was quickly doused. No one was injured.

MOSCOW (AP) — The commander of the Soviet cosmonauts today denied reports published in foreign newspapers that some of his men had died in unannounced space shots.

Air Force Lt. Gen. Nikolai Kamanin, writing in Red Star, said the aim of these reports "is to weaken the tremendous impression made by the achievement of Soviet science and technology in space."

"The names of people who have allegedly died listed in foreign papers are mostly names of nonexistent cosmonauts," he wrote.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Police cleared the downtown office building housing the U.S. Embassy today after another fake bomb warning in the Malaysian capital, the third in 24 hours.

An anonymous telephone caller said a bomb had been planted in the building. None was found.

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who has nine children, has established a trust fund for children of Sherpa climbing guides in Nepal.

Kennedy set up the trust fund, believed to be more than $7,500, with the funds he received from Life magazine for an article on his ascent last month to the top of the 13,900-foot Mt. Kennedy, named after his late brother, President John F. Kennedy.

News of World in Brief

CINCINNATI (AP)—The top of the can of beans was all gooey with thick syrup, but Mrs. Kenneth Shearwood doesn't mind. There was a diamond stuck on the lid.

Mrs. Shearwood said Tuesday a jeweler in suburban Oakley told her the half-karat yellowish stone was worth at least $100.

"When I started to wash off the stuff, I noticed this little object," Mrs. Shearwood said.

"The more I washed, the better it looked. My husband said it was a rhinestone, but I wasn't so sure. I took it to the jeweler. 'The jeweler said it was not a perfect stone, but it looks plenty good to me.'"

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — When a heart patient is standing on a pier and a crowd makes no move to save a drowning girl, what does he do?

"I can't let her drown," Thurman Tullis, 44, told his wife, and jumped in.

Tullis, a carpenter, managed to get Debbie Travis, 6, safely to the pier. But he suffered the second heart attack of his life.

Other hands pulled out Debbie, daughter of Mrs. Charles Travis.

Tullis stopped breathing. Four heart specialists at John Sealy Hospital worked on Tullis. For two days he was in critical condition.

Hospital spokesmen said Tuesday his condition was satisfactory.

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP) — Incumbent Mayor A. P. Parks was unopposed and polled 943 votes Tuesday, but the man he defeated two years ago, William O. Rardin, received 1,048 write-in votes.

Although there was no open campaign, there was an inkling of what might happen. City Attorney Glen Louderback telephoned the state attorney general's office Monday while Parks and Rardin listened on extensions.

A spokesman said Kansas statutes do not allow a write-in in a city of the first class such as Fort Scott and should Rardin receive more votes, election judges would be required to declare Parks the winner.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Voters elected the first Negro city councilman in San Antonio history Tuesday. He is the Rev. S.H. James, 46, a Baptist minister.

James ran on a ticket backed by the Good Government League, which has controlled the council for a decade. He defeated three opponents.

All the other candidates offered by the league, including incumbent Mayor W. W. McAlister, also won election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson reaffirmed Tuesday night the United States' commitment to "use our science and technology only in the cause of peace and in devotion to the vision of man."

The President spoke after he cut a ribbon to open an exhibit of federal science and engineering called "The Vision of Man" at the Museum of History and Technology of the Smithsonian Institution. The exhibit will run through mid-May and then go on a nationwide tour to stir up interest in government science careers.

Man Bound To Jury on Larceny Count

James Edward White, 23, of 375 Town St., was bound to the Pickaway Grand Jury under $1,500 bond today by Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

White, charged with the theft of $430 from the Starkey Market, Margaret Lane, entered a plea of guilty during a preliminary hearing.

He indicated he wished to go before Common Pleas Judge William Ammer on a bill of information and waive a grand jury hearing.

Circleville Policemen apprehended White shortly after the theft was reported Monday evening. They said he admitted taking the money, and showed them where he hid the bags containing the cash.

WHITE was recently paroled from the Lebanon Correctional Institute where he was serving a sentence for violation of probation, police said.

Officers reported nearly all the money was recovered. Handling the investigation were Sgt. Leroy Hawks Jr. and Patrolmen Richard Anderson and Dixie Watters.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was pretty close to a stalemate once again as prices moved unevenly early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 333.3 with industrials up .1, rails off .4 and utilities up .1.

The tense situation in Berlin and the prospect of a major speech on Viet Nam from President Johnson tonight created a cautious atmosphere.

A slightly easier tendency prevailed among steels and motors. Rails headed irregularly lower.

Selective gains among utilities, nonferrous metals, mail orders, drugs and selected issues helped keep the list on a fairly even keel.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon took a minor loss of .73 at 891.17.

NEW HOLLAND TO SEEK 1-MILL LEVY RENEWAL

The New Holland Village Council has moved to submit a five-year, one-mill levy for street maintenance and general operation.

The proposal is for renewal of a current levy. It will be on the November ballot.

20 Divorces Dismissed

Twenty divorce cases were dismissed by the court at the outset of the April term, Judge Ammer said. He explained that it is a normal procedure for the court to dismiss divorce cases after several terms of the court have gone by with no action being taken.

In most cases, the judge said, parties of the civil suit have "gone back together" and attorneys fail to make an entry of dismissal.

Judge Ammer said before a case is dismissed, however, attorneys are notified in advance that the dismissal is to be made at the beginning of the next term.

No Injuries In Bus Mishap

No injuries were listed in a mishap yesterday afternoon involving a Teays Valley School bus and a bakery truck.

Officers said the bus, loaded with 47 children, was struck in the side by a bakery truck driven by Donald B. Canright, 47, Columbus. He was backing from a private driveway onto county road No. 22, one mile west of Commercial Point.

The State Highway Patrol cited Canright for improper backing. Little damage resulted, officers said.

Mission to Jakarta

Scant optimism attends Ambassador Bunker's quest for a means of salvaging Washington's deteriorating relations with Indonesia. Mr. Bunker was the special envoy who negotiated the settlement whereby Indonesia took over West New Guinea from the Dutch.

This may have produced some fair-weather friendships in high Indonesian circles but it did nothing to abate Sukarno's territorial lust. He's now after the eastern half of New Guinea and, for the better part of a year, has been infiltrating the Federation of Malaysia.

Joint support pledged to the new federation by Britain and the United States has been Sukarno's excuse for a campaign of vilification that has led to book burnings, confiscated information centers and seizure of the management of Western commercial enterprises. Pressure by Indonesia's Communist party, largest in Asia outside Red China, continues to push Sukarno closer to Peking's line.

Accordingly, there is little to indicate Sukarno is in a position to improve relations with the West. Whatever leverage Mr. Bunker may be able to apply appears to be through the Indonesian army, some of whose leaders are said to be Western-oriented.

Greedy Diplomats

United States representatives abroad have the privilege of importing, duty free, for their own use, cars and other commodities. A considerable number of personnel abroad have been abusing this privilege by reselling their cars, for instance, at three or four times their original value, profiteering as much as $8,000 on a single vehicle.

Even more outrageous, however, are the angry protests with which many of them have greeted the warnings from Washington, the latest threatening dismissal for such violations. As an instance an unnamed U. S. ambassador — a former professor of international law at that — regards the crackdown as a constitutional infringement of government workers' "rights".

This is an all too familiar symptom of general deterioration of ethics for which Congress isn't altogether blameless.

The excuse that employees abroad need the extra profit to supplement their incomes does not hold water. If they are underpaid, the remedy is to increase wages, not to permit dubious extracurricular deals.

More than a year ago the State Department asked each foreign delegation in the U. S. to limit its members to the purchase here of one new car a year. Some diplomats had been buying and selling as many as six or seven autos annually, to their own profit and to the U. S. Treasury's loss.

By the same token, Washington cannot expect governments abroad to absorb duty losses because of the avariciousness of some who, unfortunately, represent the U. S. in other countries.

Presidential Security

Treasury Secretary Dillon told a House Appropriations subcommittee that contemplated improvements in Secret Service methods of protecting the President require $4 million more than Mr. Johnson asked for in his new budget.

Adequate safeguards involve more than money, of course. Most important, no system of protection can work without full cooperation of the president himself.

It is all very well for him to adopt the fatalistic attitude expressed in President Kennedy's prophetic observation that all a determined assassin needs is a high building and a telescopic rifle. A president cannot escape all exposure to crowds.

But there are elementary precautions that not all presidents have seen fit to observe, including an occasion, Mr. Johnson.

The Secret Service should have as much money as it says it needs. But it should also have authority commensurate with its responsibility. And there is no practicable way it can get this except by presidential refusal to override its restrictions however much they may chafe.

The Business World

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Americans have jumped the gun on the arrival of real spring weather and thereby set a record as well as possibly laying low an old tradition — when to buy a new car.

They used to wait until spring to rush to buy. But this March, when the weather most places was anything but spring-like, dealers sold more American-made autos than in any other month in history.

The home-based industry also made more cars than in any previous month. Canadian subsidiaries of U.S. auto giants started shipping Canadian-made cars here.

And European producers say the market here for their models is expanding fast — maybe not yet to the record of sales set in 1959 for foreign cars, but better than in 1964 and 1963 when the market was recovering from the 1960 dip.

The economy in general is getting a big boost from all this eagerness of Americans to buy new cars.

The stimulant goes far beyond the carmakers themselves, to their workers, dealers, repairmen, to the many suppliers of car production lines, and to the suppliers of those who make parts.

The stimulant is felt by the tiremakers, the gasoline sellers, the writers of auto insurance, the roadside restaurants and motels. In time this year's buying spree will enrich those who will have to make still more highways to accommodate the fast-growing horde of cars crowding today's roads.

How much all this adds up to for the economy in general can only be estimated. But makers of just one model, Ford's sporty Mustang, say that in its first year of production its sales of more than 400,000 have had this impact on the economy:

Retail values has topped a billion dollars. Sales have meant $860 million in wholesale financing volume and $580 million in retail financing volume, with insurance premiums on the new cars amounting to more than $54 million.

The maker has spent $224 million with some 700 outside supplier companies for components, and provided jobs for about 18,000 Ford employees. How many others are employed by dealers and supplier companies because of the new car can only be guessed.

Production started March 10, 1964, in Dearborn, Mich., and has since spread to San Jose, Calif., and Metuchen, N.J.

All this is only a small part of what the entire car industry is doing for the economy. Sales of all makes in the first three months of 1965 were a record 2,189,787, up 19 per cent from a year ago. Production in March alone was a record 962,349 cars, compared with 723,225 in March 1964.

A PUNCTILIOUS traffic court judge, having fined a speedster twenty-five dollars, suggested, "Better get a receipt from the clerk when you pay up." "What do you expect me to do with it?" snapped the disgruntled speedster. "Save it," counseled His Honor. "When you get three of them, you get a bicycle!"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Why is it wrong to use household remedies like an ice bag for pain in the stomach?

Abdominal cramps can be caused by the most unimportant conditions or by very serious ones.

It is impossible for anyone who is untrained to properly evaluate the importance of a belly-ache.

Pain — its intensity, its distribution and its duration — is one of the body's most valuable protectors. Pain puts the spotlight on the stomach and even on a special area of the stomach.

To use a pain-killer, like an ice bag, is to suppress nature's warning and give a false sense of security. Pain killers should be used for abdominal pain only at the specific direction of a physician, only after the exact cause of the pain has been determined.

Inflammation of the appendix takes so many different forms that it is said that the diagnosis of appendicitis is one of the most difficult problems that confronts the physician. It becomes even more difficult when cathartics and pain killers are used without advice.

Is there now an operation that can prevent asthmatic attacks in children and adults?

A particular operation has been under careful study all over the world for the relief of some cases of asthma.

The operation involves the removal of a tiny, pea-sized gland, the carotid body, which lies deep in the neck, adjacent to one of the largest arteries. The carotid body has been safely removed in many cases, with results that have aroused a great deal of enthusiasm and just as much doubt.

The operation is still being studied in detail, with infinite care, before it receives the general sanction of physicians everywhere.

The first enthusiasm for any new procedure is always tempered by mature scientific judgment before being pronounced the answer to such a complex problem as asthma.

What is the proper way to blow the nose?

Both nostrils should be kept open and blown together, by holding the handkerchief over the bony bridge of the nose.

This method may not be as effective as blowing through one nostril at a time, but it is safer. There will be less likelihood of forcing fluid or germs through the Eustachian tube that leads from the back of the nose to the ears.

What causes black, blue and purple spots to appear after the slightest bruise?

These black and blue marks are small collections of blood from broken blood vessels just below the surface of the skin.

It is said that excess bruising tendencies occur in families. The charming name "Devil's Pinches" has been applied to bruising that occurs without any real or serious disturbance in the clotting mechanism of the blood.

How To Observe 'Boyle's Law'

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is having to listen to someone who has given up a bad habit.

Naturally, if you have sworn off sniffing glue, drinking martinis, or chain-smoking cigarettes, you must make your withdrawal pangs public.

The problem in social situations is to grab the conversation at the start. If you don't brag about the bad habit you're throttling, the other fellow will bore you with dire tales of his struggles.

When you have only a single bad habit and give it up utterly, it is usually replaced by another bad habit. This is known as Boyle's Law.

For example:

The two-bottle a day bourbon aficionado remains as shaky as ever, because he gets caffeine nerves from drinking 20 cups of coffee.

The compulsive smoker becomes a compulsive eater.

The compulsive eater becomes a compulsive pill swallower.

And all become compulsive talkers.

If you are restricted to one vice, perhaps it would be wiser to surrender it piecemeal. Mark Twain, an inveterate cigar man who lived into his 70s said he never had any trouble giving up smoking: "I've done it a thousand times."

An even better way, probably, is to acquire a number of objectionable habits and conquer them one day at a time. Here is a suggested schedule:

Monday — give up smoking.

Tuesday — no drinking.

Wednesday — Give up poverty.

Thursday — absolutely no gambling.

Friday — give up girl ogling.

Saturday — no fatty foods.

Sunday — give up swearing.

'Fronts' Blooming Again

By John Chamberlain

You've heard of "fronts." The period of the Nineteen Thirties was alive with their noise, their meetings, and their paid political advertisements. What distinguishes a "front" is that it is a judicious mixture of innocent people and others, not so innocent, who have roots in organizations that do not deem it good politics to make a pitch for their beliefs or desires under their own name.

In the Thirties there was something called the American League Against War and Fascism. It advocated that we fight Nazis tooth and claw. But when Stalin signed a pact with Hitler to carve up Poland, the League Against War and Fascism blossomed out overnight as the American League for Peace and Democracy.

And its new "line" was that we owed it to civilization to inform the Europeans that the Yanks weren't coming.

Well, it didn't take any particular gumshoe work to determine just who was calling the shots in the "front" called the League Against War and Fascism. The "front" technique was not used very much in the later days of Stalin, largely because Americans had become disillusioned with the Soviets in the early Cold War period. But the Khrushchev period got our hopes up — and as the "spirit of Geneva" and the "Spirit of Camp David" took over, the "fronts" began to burgeon once more.

They are now in full cry. There is the Progressive Labor Movement, which doesn't have much to do with American labor because it is so busy making propaganda hay for whatever Mao Tse-tung and Fidel Castro think is progressive. There are the DuBois Clubs of America, which would like everyone to believe they are "unaffiliated," but which always seem to line up with any cause that favors the isolation of America in a world "neutrally" committed to the destruction of capitalism. There is the May 2 Committee, which is for peace provided it is the peace advocated by the Viet Cong in South Vietnam. There is the Youth Against War and Fascism, which never denounces war when it is practiced by "liberation" groups, and which would be affronted if you called Mao Tse-tung a Red Fascist. And there are lots of others, with old or new names, depending on their organizers' ideas about the need for better wool-pulling over naive eyes.

It was a "front" for a "front" that took a number of young Americans to Castro's Cuba a year ago. The "front" in back of the "front" was the Progresssive Labor Movement; the "front" that was out in front was the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba. A young man who helped organize this bit of Chinese-egg double-fronting — his name is Philip Luce, and I understand he is under guard lest his former associates decide to bang him up a bit — has spilled the beans on the technique of double-fronting.

The "fronts" are now very busy trying to pressure Lyndon Johnson into "negotiating" a peace with the Viet Cong in Vietnam by giving Southeast Asia to "neutrals" who will wind up as "fronts" for the extension of Communism. Their advertisements are now appearing in big city newspapers. Those who are skilled in following the burrowing of moles will note the judicious mixture of innocent and non-innocent names on petitions to the President to get out of Saigon before the peace-loving Viet Cong bombs us out. I counted nine names of veteran "fronters" of the Thirties attached to one of these letter-advertisements, mixed in with a lot of new names who are probably innocent of the whole technique of "fronting."

The "front" technique is more confusing now than it was in the Nineteen Thirties for the simple reason that Communism now has two heads, one in Moscow and one in Peking, plus a character who dwelleth in Havana on a swivel that moves swiftly through 180 degrees like the neck of an owl. But the fact that Communism now has a double focus does not prevent the Moscow and Peking "fronts" from becoming a "united front" on specific issues.

Confusing or not, "front-spotting" isn't so difficult. All you have to do is to note who calls for peace when. You won't find many incurable "fronters" objecting to such gentle things abroad as the bombings of American embassies, or the burning of U. S. libraries, or the murder and cannibalization of a few priests and nuns.

Mission to Jakarta

Scant optimism attends Ambassador Bunker's quest for a means of salvaging Washington's deteriorating relations with Indonesia. Mr. Bunker was the special envoy who negotiated the settlement whereby Indonesia took over West New Guinea from the Dutch.

This may have produced some fair-weather friendships in high Indonesian circles but it did nothing to abate Sukarno's territorial lust. He's now after the eastern half of New Guinea and, for the better part of a year, has been infiltrating the Federation of Malaysia.

Joint support pledged to the new federation by Britain and the United States has been Sukarno's excuse for a campaign of vilification that has led to book burnings, confiscated information centers and seizure of the management of Western commercial enterprises. Pressure by Indonesia's Communist party, largest in Asia outside Red China, continues to push Sukarno closer to Peking's line.

Accordingly, there is little to indicate Sukarno is in a position to improve relations with the West. Whatever leverage Mr. Bunker may be able to apply appears to be through the Indonesian army, some of whose leaders are said to be Western-oriented.

Greedy Diplomats

United States representatives abroad have the privilege of importing, duty free, for their own use, cars and other commodities. A considerable number of personnel abroad have been abusing this privilege by reselling their cars, for instance, at three or four times their original value, profiteering as much as $8,000 on a single vehicle.

Even more outrageous, however, are the angry protests with which many of them have greeted the warnings from Washington, the latest threatening dismissal for such violations. As an instance an unnamed U. S. ambassador — a former professor of international law at that — regards the crackdown as a constitutional infringement of government workers' "rights".

This is an all too familiar symptom of general deterioration of ethics for which Congress isn't altogether blameless.

The excuse that employees abroad need the extra profit to supplement their incomes does not hold water. If they are underpaid, the remedy is to increase wages, not to permit dubious extracurricular deals.

More than a year ago the State Department asked each foreign delegation in the U. S. to limit its members to the purchase here of one new car a year. Some diplomats had been buying and selling as many as six or seven autos annually, to their own profit and to the U. S. Treasury's loss.

By the same token, Washington cannot expect governments abroad to absorb duty losses because of the avariciousness of some who, unfortunately, represent the U. S. in other countries.

Presidential Security

Treasury Secretary Dillon told a House Appropriations subcommittee that contemplated improvements in Secret Service methods of protecting the President require $4 million more than Mr. Johnson asked for in his new budget.

Adequate safeguards involve more than money, of course. Most important, no system of protection can work without full cooperation of the president himself.

It is all very well for him to adopt the fatalistic attitude expressed in President Kennedy's prophetic observation that all a determined assassin needs is a high building and a telescopic rifle. A president cannot escape all exposure to crowds.

But there are elementary precautions that not all presidents have seen fit to observe, including an occasion, Mr. Johnson.

The Secret Service should have as much money as it says it needs. But it should also have authority commensurate with its responsibility. And there is no practicable way it can get this except by presidential refusal to override its restrictions however much they may chafe.

The Business World

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans have jumped the gun on the arrival of real spring weather and thereby set a record as well as possibly laying low an old tradition — when to buy a new car.

They used to wait until spring to rush to buy. But this March, when the weather most places was anything but spring-like, dealers sold more American-made autos than in any other month in history.

The home-based industry also made more cars than in any previous month. Canadian subsidiaries of U.S. auto giants started shipping Canadian-made cars here.

And European producers say the market here for their models is expanding fast — maybe not up yet to the record of sales set in 1959 for foreign cars, but better than in 1964 and 1963 when the market was recovering from the 1960 dip.

The economy in general is getting a big boost from this eagerness of Americans to buy new cars.

The stimulant goes far beyond the carmakers themselves, to their workers, dealers, repairmen, to the many suppliers of car production lines, and to the suppliers of those who make parts.

The stimulant is felt by the tiremakers, the gasoline sellers, the writers of auto insurance, the roadside restaurants and motels. In time this year's buying spree will enrich those who will have to make still more highways to accommodate the fast-growing horde of cars crowding today's roads.

How much all this adds up to for the economy in general can only be estimated. But makers of just one model, Ford's sporty Mustang, say that in its first year of production its sales of more than 400,000 have had this impact on the economy:

Retail values have topped a billion dollars. Sales have meant $860 million in wholesale financing volume and $580 million in retail financing volume, with insurance premiums on the new cars amounting to more than $54 million.

The maker has spent $224 million with some 700 outside supplier companies for components, and provided jobs for about 18,000 Ford employees. How many others are employed by dealers and supplier companies because of the new car can only be guessed.

Production started March 10, 1964, in Dearborn, Mich., and has since spread to San Jose, Calif., and Metuchen, N.J.

All this is only a small part of what the entire car industry is doing for the economy. Sales of all makes in the first three months of 1965 were a record 2,189,787, up 19 per cent from a year ago. Production in March alone was a record 962,549 cars, compared with 723,225 in March 1964.

A PUNCTILIOUS traffic court judge, having fined a speedster twenty-five dollars, suggested, "Better get a receipt from the clerk when you pay up." "What do you expect me to do with it?" snapped the disgruntled speedster. "Save it," counseled His Honor. "When you get three of them, you get a bicycle!"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Why is it wrong to use household remedies like an ice bag for pain in the stomach?

Abdominal cramps can be caused by the most unimportant conditions or by very serious ones.

It is impossible for anyone who is untrained to properly evaluate the importance of a belly-ache.

Pain — its intensity, its distribution and its duration — is one of the body's most valuable protectors. Pain puts the spotlight on the stomach and even on a special area of the stomach.

To use a pain-killer, like an ice bag, is to suppress nature's warning and give a false sense of security. Pain killers should be used for abdominal pain only at the specific direction of a physician, only after the exact cause of the pain has been determined.

Inflammation of the appendix takes so many different forms that it is said that the diagnosis of appendicitis is one of the most difficult problems that confronts the physician. It becomes even more difficult when cathartics and pain killers are used without advice.

Is there now an operation that can prevent asthmatic attacks in children and adults?

A particular operation has been under careful study all over the world for the relief of some cases of asthma.

The operation involves the removal of a tiny, pea-sized gland, the carotid body, which lies deep in the neck, adjacent to one of the largest arteries.

The carotid body has been safely removed in many cases, with results that have aroused a great deal of enthusiasm and just as much doubt.

The operation is still being studied in detail, with infinite care, before it receives the general sanction of physicians everywhere.

The first enthusiasm for any new procedure is always tempered by mature scientific judgment before being pronounced the answer to such a complex problem as asthma.

What is the proper way to blow the nose?

Both nostrils should be kept open and blown together, by holding the handkerchief over the bony bridge of the nose.

This method may not be as effective as blowing through one nostril at a time, but it is safer. There will be less likelihood of forcing fluid or germs through the Eustachian tube that leads from the back of the nose to the ears.

What causes black, blue and purple spots to appear after the slightest bruise?

These black and blue marks are small collections of blood from broken blood vessels just below the surface of the skin.

It is said that excess bruising tendencies occur in families. The charming name "Devil's Pinches" has been applied to bruising that occurs without any real or serious disturbance in the clotting mechanism of the blood.

How To Observe 'Boyle's Law'

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is having to listen to someone who has given up a bad habit.

Naturally, if you have sworn off sniffing glue, drinking martinis, or chain-smoking cigarettes, you must make your withdrawal pangs public.

The problem in social situations is to grab the conversation at the start. If you don't brag about the bad habit you're throttling, the other fellow will bore you with dire tales of his struggles.

When you have only a single bad habit and give it up utterly, it is usually replaced by another bad habit. This is known as Boyle's Law.

For example:

The two-bottle a day bourbon aficionado remains as shaky as ever, because he gets caffeine nerves from drinking 20 cups of coffee.

The compulsive smoker becomes a compulsive eater.

The compulsive eater becomes a compulsive pill swallower.

And all become compulsive talkers.

If you are restricted to one vice, perhaps it would be wiser to surrender it piecemeal. Mark Twain, an inveterate cigar man who lived into his 70s said he never had any trouble giving up smoking: "I've done it a thousand times."

An even better way, probably, is to acquire a number of objectionable habits and conquer them one day at a time. Here is a suggested schedule:

Monday — give up smoking.
Tuesday — no drinking.
Wednesday — Give up poverty.
Thursday — absolutely no gambling.

Friday — give up girl ogling.
Saturday — no fatty foods.
Sunday — give up swearing.

Under this program you have a real sense of victory because at least one day each week you are abstaining from a vice that is undermining your character. On the other hand, each day you can remain human by enjoying the other six.

You'll also have seven times as many withdrawal symptoms to talk about.

Republicans
Alter Lineup
In Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican leadership in the Ohio Senate has been realigned in a show of outward unity that failed to convince many legislative observers.

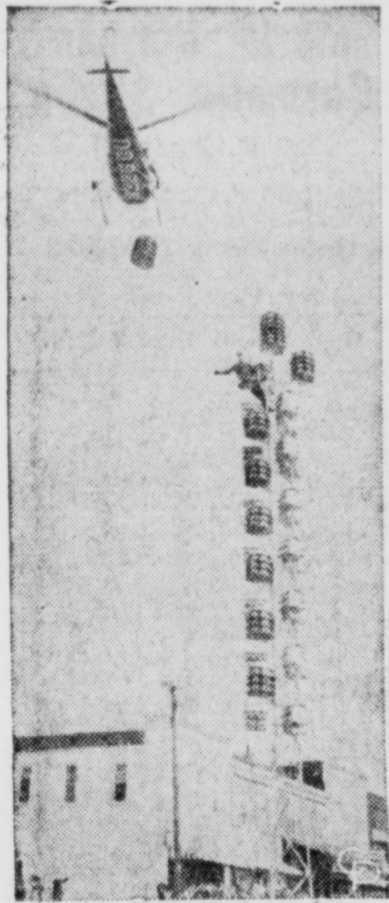

Key figures in the changeover Tuesday was Sen. William H. Deddens, dean of Senate Republicans, who was shifted from his powerful post as Senate Finance Committee Chairman to head of the relatively obscure committee on insurance and financial institutions.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R - Allen, leading spokesman for the GOP state administration in recent quarrels over state support to education, moved from the insurance committee chair to replace Deddens in the finance post.

Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-Miami, said the move was prearranged under agreement of all parties and that it in no way reflected upon Deddens, who has headed the Finance Committee since 1960.

Gray said by long practice, senators holding the finance chairmanship were limited to two terms but that Deddens was asked to stay on until now "in deference to his service and the fact he is GOP dean of the senate."

It was Gray who defeated Deddens in a two-man race for majority leader at the outset of the legislative session early this year.

TODAY
In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, April 7, the 97th day of 1965. There are 268 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1788, a band of 47 men, most of them veterans of the Revolution, stepped ashore at what was to be Marietta, Ohio. They immediately wrote a set of laws and nailed it to a tree. It established the first formally organized government in what was then the Northwest.

On this date In 1798, Congress organized the Territory of Mississippi, including the present State of Alabama.

In 1891, one of the great showmen of all time, Phineas T. Barnum, died.

In 1933, beer and wine became legal in the United States after 13 dry years.

In 1942, Japanese dive-bombers machine gunned American forces on Bataan Peninsula.

In 1945, U.S. carrier planes sunk Japan's largest battleship, the Yamato, off Kyushu Island.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed the Paris pacts granting sovereignty to West Germany.

Five years ago — The American Chemical Society was given evidence at a meeting in Cleveland that nuclear fallout had less effect on soils and crops than had been anticipated.

One year ago — A federal grand jury indicted eight of the largest steel companies on charges of price-fixing.

The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church gave a miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Edgar Stoneburner, honoring Mrs. Clarence Wood (Barbara Schooley). Mrs. Paul Ankrom assisted the hostess in the absence of Mrs. Thoburn Orr who was ill.

A pink wedding bell was suspended from the mantel over the gift table. Prizes won by Mrs. Russell Graves and Mrs. E. V. Graves were given to Mrs. Wood.

Present were Mrs. Leslie Dearth, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Ankrom, Mrs. John Boggs and Suzanne, Mrs. John Parsons and Molly Stoneburner. Gifts were sent by: Mrs. Fred Orr, Mrs. Thoburn Orr, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Robert Gearhart, Mrs. Norman Godden, Mrs. Don Jones, Mrs. Tom Congrove, Mrs. Glenn Congrove, Miss Elizabeth Umsted and Mrs. Wayne Wardwell.

Mrs. Fred Orr sent a cake which was served with fruit punch from a table centered with a pair of wedding rings on a white satin pillow and flanked by gold candles.

Word was received here Saturday of the death of Mr. Donald Ford of Loveland, O. He died following surgery in Bellefontaine. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Ford, formerly of Kingston.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

Funeral services were held in Loveland Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Dorah Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Large were in Loveland on Sunday to visit the family.

Sherry Knisley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knisley, participated in the district music competition held at Washington C. H. Saturday. She earned a rating of excellent. She sang an Italian song, "Se Tu M'Ami" and was accompanied by Suzanne Gearhart. Edward Baker, head of the music department accompanied the girls to Washington.

In celebration of the 16th birthday of their daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lyons and their children Kathy, Janet, Amy and Peter went to Columbus Sunday evening where they were joined by another daughter, Rosemary. All went out for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis had as their guests on Sunday their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nicol from Marysville.

Mr. John Waters, a teacher in the high school at Phoenix, Ariz., arrived Friday for a short visit with relatives here and in Circleville.

On Saturday Mr. Waters, his mother Mrs. John Waters and sister, Mrs. Dwight Davis, drove to Bidwell to visit another sister, Mrs. Lowell Fish who had just been released from the hospital.

DENTURES

Q. Are complete dentures ever as satisfactory as natural teeth?

A. If by "satisfactory" you refer to chewing ability, the answer is "no." Chewing tests recently conducted by dentists show that most people with upper and lower plates are even more handicapped than had been supposed. With natural teeth rated at 100 per cent in efficiency, false teeth ranked up a poor 12 per cent.

SEASICKNESS

Q. Why do some people get seasick and not others?

A. There is no simple explanation. It is known, however, that infants are less likely to get seasick or to have other types of motion sickness than older children and adults. Perhaps this is because the infant's nervous system is not well developed. Susceptibility to motion sickness lessens in later years, perhaps because general responsiveness declines, or because of adaptation through experience. If movements are severe enough everybody can be made sick.

Republicans Alter Lineup In Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican leadership in the Ohio Senate has been realigned in a show of outward unity that failed to convince many legislative observers.

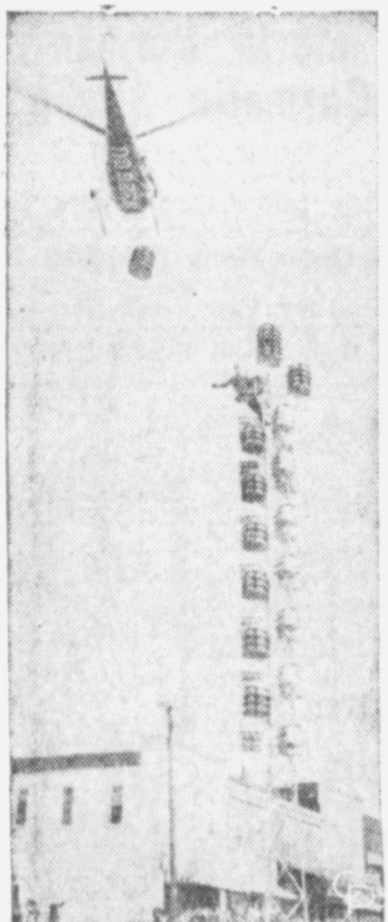

Key figures in the changeover Tuesday were Sen. William H. Daddens, dean of Senate Republicans, who was shifted from his powerful post as Senate Finance Committee Chairman to head of the relatively obscure committee on insurance and financial institutions.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R - Allen, leading spokesman for the GOP state administration in recent quarrels over state support to education, moved from the insurance committee chair to replace Daddens in the finance post.

Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-Miami, said the move was prearranged under agreement of all parties and that it in no way reflected upon Daddens, who has headed the Finance Committee since 1960.

Gray said by long practice, senators holding the finance chairmanship were limited to two terms but that Daddens was asked to stay on until now "in deference to his service and the fact he is GOP dean of the senate."

It was Gray who defeated Daddens in a two-man race for majority leader at the outset of the legislative session early this year.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, April 7, the 97th day of 1965. There are 268 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1788, a band of 47 men, most of them veterans of the Revolution, stepped ashore at what was to be Marietta, Ohio. They immediately wrote a set of laws and nailed it to a tree. It established the first formally organized government in what was then the Northwest.

On this date
In 1798, Congress organized the Territory of Mississippi, including the present State of Alabama.

In 1891, one of the great showmen of all time, Phineas T. Barnum, died.

In 1933, beer and wine became legal in the United States after 13 dry years.

In 1942, Japanese dive-bombers machine gunned American forces on Bataan Peninsula.

In 1945, U.S. carrier planes sunk Japan's largest battleship, the Yamato, off Kyushu Island.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed the Paris pacts granting sovereignty to West Germany.

Five years ago — The American Chemical Society was given evidence at a meeting in Cleveland that nuclear fallout had less effect on soils and crops than had been anticipated.

One year ago — A federal grand jury indicted eight of the largest steel companies on charges of price-fixing.

The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church gave a miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Edgar Stoneburner, honoring Mrs. Clarence Wood (Barbara Schooley). Mrs. Paul Ankrom assisted the hostess in the absence of Mrs. Thoburn Orr who was ill.

A pink wedding bell was suspended from the mantel over the gift table. Prizes won by Mrs. Russell Graves and Mrs. E. V. Graves were given to Mrs. Wood.

Present were Mrs. Leslie Dearth, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. Ankrom, Mrs. John Boggs and Suzanne, Mrs. John Parsons and Molly Stoneburner. Gifts were sent by: Mrs. Fred Orr, Mrs. Thoburn Orr, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Robert Gearhart, Mrs. Norman Godden, Mrs. Don Jones, Mrs. Tom Congrove, Mrs. Glenn Congrove, Miss Elizabeth Umsted and Mrs. Wayne Wardwell.

Mrs. Fred Orr sent a cake which was served with fruit punch from a table centered with a pair of wedding rings on a white satin pillow and flanked by gold candles.

Word was received here Saturday of the death of Mr. Donald Ford of Loveland, O. He died following surgery in Bellefontaine. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Ford, formerly of Kingston.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held in Loveland Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorah Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Large were in Loveland on Sunday to visit the family.

Sherry Knisley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knisley, participated in the district music competition held at Washington C. H. Saturday. She earned a rating of excellent. She sang an Italian song, "Se Tu M'Ami" and was accompanied by Suzanne Gearhart. Edward Baker, head of the music department accompanied the girls to Washington.

In celebration of the 16th birthday of their daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lyons and their children Kathy, Janet, Amy and Peter went to Columbus Sunday evening where they were joined by another daughter, Rosemary. All went out for dinner.

Dear Abby: Age-Old Dilemma!

DEAR ABBY: Please tell TENNESSEE HUNTER to stop using that old chestnut about how the poor animals would starve to death if hunters did not kill them off "mercifully" with one well-placed bullet. Even the average high school boy (I am one) knows that Nature's way is best. The old, weak and sick animals will die of starvation, leaving the young, strong and healthy ones to perpetuate the species. So which animals do our hunters shoot down? The biggest, most physically fit and most beautiful? I know. I come from a family of hunters who wouldn't waste a bullet on a scrawny specimen. No, they gun down the deer with the shiniest coat and biggest antlers, show him off to friends, and hang him on a tree and let him rot.

ANIMAL LOVER DEAR ANIMAL LOVER: You are long on compassion, which I like, but short on facts about the preservation of our wildlife. Experts say that under present limitation on feed, grazing land, etc. herds must be thinned, else deer will propagate too freely and die. Hunting seasons, properly controlled are in the deer's best interest.

DEAR ABBY: I still don't know how people can justify hunting for the sport of it. The Bible clearly states, "THOU SHALT NOT KILL." Granted, killing an animal for food in order for man to survive is understandable. Although today there are people who manage to live without meat and they seem no worse for it. But to go out and kill beautiful wild birds and noble beasts just for the thrill of it, makes no sense at all.

BEWILDERED

DEAR ABBY: In reply to "TENNESSEE HUNTER": I would just like to say that if it is so "humane," as hunters claim, to shoot defenseless animals instead of letting them starve to death, I should think it would be much more humane to buy food for the animals with the money they spend on guns and ammunition. Then let them go to the woods and put the food where the starving animals can get it to enable them to live and keep the beauty and wildlife in our country as it should be.

COLLEGE STUDENT

DEAR ABBY: What's all the commotion about hunting deer? If someone can tell me why it's kinder to hit a steer over the head and then slit his throat than it is to put a bullet through his heart, I'll quit hunting.

WARREN IN ST. PAUL

DEAR ABBY: Here is my memo to hunters: If you want to kill, why be pikers? Go after the big game. Join the Army and ask for front line duty in Viet Nam.

WAR VET

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for the benefit of "TENNESSEE HUNTER" and all other hunters who somehow manage to rationalize their urge to kill: When they provide deer with guns and ammunition, and teach them how to use them in self-defense, I will go hunting. Thank you.

NO HUNTER

DEAR ABBY: Apropos your hunting controversy: I once saw a sign in a Minneapolis sports equipment store which read: "BETTER TO TAKE YOUR BOY HUNTING THAN TO GO HUNTING FOR YOUR BOY." Isn't that great?

FROM DULUTH

DEAR FROM: It's great for selling hunting equipment. But time spent with one's boy, whether it's hunting, building a fence, or just sitting around chatting, is equally good insurance against not having to go hunting for him.

Group Holds Dinner Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss were hosts when 16 members of the Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club met in the church basement. A covered dish dinner preceded the meeting.

Mrs. Elbee Jones, president, presided. Scripture was read by Mrs. Clark Dennis. Mrs. Arthur Winfough, Mrs. Ned Long and Mrs. Helen Phillips. A reading pertaining to the date of Easter was also given.

Mrs. Furniss, secretary, reported and read thank you notes from William Finch and Mrs. Frances Redman for flowers received while they were in the hospital. Mrs. Clark Dennis, treasurer, reported. The meeting closed with The Lord's Prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sheets will be hosts for the next meeting which will be held April 30 in the church basement.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Age-Old Dilemma!

DEAR ABBY: Please tell TENNESSEE HUNTER to stop using that old chestnut about how the poor animals would starve to death if hunters did not kill them off "mercifully" with one well-placed bullet. Even the average high school boy (I am one) knows that Nature's way is best. The old, weak and sick animals will die of starvation, leaving the young, strong and healthy ones to perpetuate the species. So which animals do our hunters shoot down? The biggest, most physically fit and most beautiful? I know, I come from a family of hunters who wouldn't waste a bullet on a scrawny specimen. No, they gun down the deer with the shiniest coat and biggest antlers, show him off to friends, and hang him on a tree and let him rot.

ANIMAL LOVER
DEAR ANIMAL LOVER: You are long on compassion, which I like, but short on facts about the preservation of our wildlife. Experts say that under present limitation on feed, grazing land, etc. herds must be thinned, else deer will propagate too freely and die. Hunting seasons, properly controlled are in the deer's best interest.

DEAR ABBY: I still don't know how people can justify hunting for the sport of it. The Bible clearly states, "THOU SHALT NOT KILL." Granted, killing an animal for food is understandable. Although today there are people who manage to live without meat and they seem no worse for it. But to go out and kill beautiful wild birds and noble beasts just for the thrill of it, makes no sense at all.

BEWILDERED
DEAR ABBY: In reply to "TENNESSEE HUNTER": I would just like to say that if it is so "humane," as hunters claim, to shoot defenseless animals instead of letting them starve to death, I should think it would be much more humane to buy food for the animals with the money they spend on guns and ammunition. Then let them go to the woods and put the food where the starving animals can get it to enable them to live and keep the beauty and wildlife in our country as it should be.

COLLEGE STUDENT
DEAR ABBY: What's all the commotion about hunting deer? If someone can tell me why it's kinder to hit a steer over the head and then slit his throat than it is to put a bullet through his heart, I'll quit hunting.

WARREN IN ST. PAUL
DEAR ABBY: Here is my memo to hunters: If you want to kill, why be pikers? Go after the big game. Join the Army and ask for front line duty in Viet Nam.

WAR VET
DEAR ABBY: Please print this for the benefit of "TENNESSEE HUNTER" and all other hunters who somehow manage to rationalize their urge to kill: When they provide deer with guns and ammunition, and teach them how to use them in self-defense, I will go hunting. Thank you.

NO HUNTER
DEAR ABBY: Apropos your hunting controversy: I once saw a sign in a Minneapolis sports equipment store which read: "BETTER TO TAKE YOUR BOY HUNTING THAN TO GO HUNTING FOR YOUR BOY." Isn't that great?

FROM DULUTH
DEAR FROM: It's great for selling hunting equipment. But time spent with one's boy, whether it's hunting, building a fence, or just sitting around chatting, is equally good insurance against not having to go hunting for him.

Group Holds Dinner Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss were hosts when 16 members of the Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club met in the church basement. A covered dish dinner preceded the meeting.

India Sees Handicap in Lengthy U.S. Aid

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indians are eating on the American cuff these days and many don't like it.

Despite India's severe food shortages and admitted inability to feed itself, the Indian government is under attack for seeking two more years of massive imports of U.S. wheat amounting to 20,000 tons a day.

India is heavily dependent on supplies of American grain under the Food for Peace Program. American experts don't expect this nation of 480 million will be any closer to self-sufficiency in food 10 years from now.

Yet the strange controversy rages in Parliament, the press and the market place over whether to go on accepting food aid from the United States.

Some leading figures in Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's ruling Congress party have joined the onslaught. Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Pandit, sister of the late Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, has said:

"If we wait for the next food crisis and the great ships sailing to bring relief to us, we shall be a broken people."

Mrs. Pandit's fears of a "broken people" focus on a major argument against U.S. food assistance: that Indians may be lulled into a dependent attitude, a false security, and not try hard enough to solve the food dilemma by boosting their own farm output.

Other critical themes are that such giant doses of American aid endanger India's nonalignment, and that buying U.S. wheat for Indian rupees gives Washington a potent lever on the nation. The United States now possesses half the rupees in circulation.

There also is some talk about "bad American wheat," meaning dirty, but this doesn't stop people from standing in line hours to buy it at reasonable government-fixed prices.

American officials say that India's primitive port and transportation facilities and often filthy grain shops are to blame if any wheat is soiled.

Shastri's government defends

U.S. food imports and has no plans to alter the nine-year-old arrangement under which India gets up to seven million tons of grain a year, pays for it with rupees and gets most of this Indian currency back in 40-year loans and grants.

Actually, since all sides recognize the need for foreign food, it looks as if the India government has little choice.

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political scientists will dig in President Johnson's record for years to come to learn the kind of polite jingo he used on Congress to get what he wanted.

So far his record in foreign affairs is unimpressive but he has done amazingly well in getting action from Congress on his programs, particularly some which the men in the Capitol steadfastly refused to approve for almost two decades.

There were two astonishing examples today:

His proposal of federal aid to education — in elementary and secondary schools — came up for debate in the Senate. It passed the House March 26. Today also the House began consideration of Johnson's health care for the aged program.

Both programs are expected to pass both houses and become law. Both of them have been kicking around in Congress, in one form or another, for at least 18 years. Opposition to them was always too strong until now.

There are three obvious explanations for Johnson's success so far:

1. As a result of the 1964 election his Democrats have overwhelming control of Congress. In the House they outnumber Republicans 295 to 140 and in the Senate 68 to 32.

After the election, and despite his majorities in both houses, some predicted Johnson would coast and offer few programs. He has done just the opposite. He is making full use of his political advantage and deluging Congress with requests.

2. He works at his job probably harder than any president in 100 years. It's day and night with him and into all hours of the night.

This involves inviting members of Congress to the White House for personal talks — the 100 senators and the 435 House members sometimes in batches of 50 — besides individual invitations and endless telephone calls.

He works with the leaders of both houses constantly.

3. He is willing to settle for something less than all he would like to have. In other words, he is willing to make some compromises to get legislation through instead of sitting rigidly in the ice box where otherwise it might wind up.

For years the aid to education bill had run into a pair of stone walls: one was the fear this might open the door to federal interference in education; the other was the old church-state conflict.

This meant in the past a double opposition: on one side, opposition to federal aid for parochial schools; on the other, opposition to federal aid if some of it didn't go to parochial schools. Johnson managed to concoct a program which didn't give direct aid to parochial schools but could help individual children in those schools. The conflict pretty much dissolved.

The bulk of the money, $1,066,000,000, would go to schools in poor sections throughout the country. The funds would all go to public schools. But special services, such as shared-time classes and counseling, would be provided for students in parochial and other private schools.

For years the House Ways and Means Committee, headed by Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., had been the big bottleneck on programs of health care for the aged.

Then late last month it cleared for action by the House — the action the House was taking today — a measure even broader than the program Johnson had asked Congress to approve earlier in the year.

It is not only the speed with which the education and health care programs are moving through Congress that is astonishing. Equally so is the realization that both seem sure of passage.

Congress already has passed Johnson's program of federal aid for the 11-state Appalachia area. Still pending are other major pieces of legislation this year: an excise tax cut, presidential disability, congressional redistricting, a minimum wage increase, and a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights.

But last year Johnson had an excellent record with Congress, getting about 80 per cent of the legislation he wanted: a new civil rights law, an $11.5-billion tax cut, a housing bill, a measure to provide jobs and training for youths, and others.

It's possible as time goes on, say next year, Johnson may lose much of his effectiveness if only because of congressional weariness from getting arms twisted. But there is no sign of it yet. Anything but.

3 Belmont Officials Are Cited

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Auditor Chester W. Goble released a state examiner's report Tuesday listing findings for recovery of $6,358.28 from three Belmont County court officials and their sureties. The auditor said the findings involved mis-handling of court funds.

Goble said those named in the report, covering a period extending from April 17, 1962, to Jan. 31, 1965, were County Judge George Sherry of the court's eastern division at Bell-air and his surety, the Ohio Casualty Co.; Anthony M. Vavra, clerk of courts, and his bonding company, the Western Surety Co., and Phyllis Moon-ey, a former deputy clerk.

The report said the deputy clerk was not bonded, despite the mandatory provision of law.

The findings, made in favor of the court's eastern division, included an item of $3,874.72 against Judge Sherry and his surety, and the deputy clerk for unaccounted for funds allegedly received by the deputy clerk while handling five trusteeship accounts.

Ad Man Is Revealed To Be Model for JFK

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A Knoxville advertising agency executive says he is the man who posed for a bust of the late President John F. Kennedy which is planned as a gift to the Kennedy Memorial Library at Boston, Mass.

Sam Newman, who resembles the slain president in looks and gestures, said sculptor Jacques Lipchitz had been commissioned by the Spaeth Foundation of New York City to do the work for the library.

Johnson Due To Report on Viet Nam War

About the same time British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart told the House of Commons in London that there were more grounds for hope on that Thursday than there had been even the preceding day. Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk have said they do not know what Stewart was talking about, but his remarks strengthen an impression that the peace front of the Vietnamese conflict has become very active within the last week or two.

On the other side of the picture, Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said possible intervention of Red China in the struggle was discussed by the committee with Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor late last week. Fulbright expressed concern that the war would get out of control.

In an interview, Fulbright said he could not assess Tuesday's reports that U.N. Secretary-General U Thant had received a message from Red China's Premier Chou En-lai suggesting that any settlement in Viet Nam is up to the parties directly involved. The Arkansas senator said he did not have enough information to know whether such a message means that China would stand aside in any negotiations. The State Department declined comment.

Elsewhere on Capitol Hill, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., called again for a cessation of hostilities in Viet Nam. "You can't have negotiations without a cease-fire. As long as the fighting continues there can't be any effective talks," Cooper said.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said the United States should move toward breaking the diplomatic deadlock in Viet Nam. He said, "If our carrot-and-stick strategy is to succeed in bringing Hanoi to the conference table on acceptable terms, it is not enough to brandish the stick only — it is equally important to show the carrot."

In Ottawa, Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson said Johnson was very interested in his suggestion for a pause in U.S. bombings of North Viet Nam to see if Hanoi would be willing to enter negotiations without an appearance of bowing to military pressure. Pearson and Johnson met last Saturday at Camp David in Maryland. Johnson was publicly noncommittal on Pearson's proposal.

Ambassador Taylor returned to his Saigon post Monday. His week-long conference in Washington resulted in new decisions by the President to increase U.S. military forces in South Viet Nam by several thousand men. They will be military engineers, communications specialists and the like.

Officials said this is on the "war track" of the administration's double-track Vietnamese policy. It is part of a military strategy the purpose of which is defined as being to convince leaders of North Viet Nam that they cannot win the war in the south and that they increasingly risk their own survival in trying to do so.

The "peace track" is said to embrace constant diplomatic proddings to see whether the North Vietnamese are interested in a settlement.

While the President's speech was being written, authorities here declined to speculate about how far he might go in trying to suggest circumstances or conditions for negotiation. That is a key issue raised by the neutralist nations in asking all sides to join in talks without preconditions.

Algeria, with an area of 920,000 square miles, is larger than Texas and Alaska combined. Its population numbers 11 million.

Berlin Rumpus Seen Artificial

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The new rumpus over Berlin has an artificial, improvised look.

It seems to fall short of real crisis. The Communist challenge is directed more at the West German government than specifically at the United States or the Western Allies.

Big fusses over Berlin come regularly every few years. In the past, the appearance of a Berlin crisis usually was a reflection of some sort of Soviet policy problem, domestic or foreign.

This time it is possible the East German Communists insisted something had to be done to challenge the West German Parliament's plan to meet in West Berlin Wednesday. But the East German interference with land and air traffic to the isolated city undoubtedly was undertaken with Soviet approval.

This time it is possible the East German Communists insisted something had to be done to challenge the West German Parliament's plan to meet in West Berlin Wednesday. But the East German interference with land and air traffic to the isolated city undoubtedly was undertaken with Soviet approval.

The Kremlin has had much trouble in the world Communist movement. It has had difficulty keeping Communist East Europe in line. It has huge problems with its internal economy. It has made no spectacular moves on the world stage since the new regime took over from Nikita Khrushchev.

A Berlin fuss could demonstrate that the Kremlin's heart still is in expansion of Communist power.

But the Russians are unlikely to repeat the mistakes made by Stalin and Khrushchev. Stalin's mistake was a posture so menacing that it pushed the West together into solid unity. Khrushchev's error was in biting off more than he could chew, so that he had to back away from his ultimatum to the West to get out of Berlin.

Every-Year Legislative Meets Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Some Ohio legislators pushing for annual sessions of the general assembly contend many Ohioans are under the impression they already occur.

Reps. Bernice MacKenzie, D-Stark, and John C. McDonald, D-Licking, expressed that view Tuesday night as the House Elections and Federal Relations Committee opened hearings on a half-dozen proposals for annual sessions.

Some also call for four-year terms for house members, the same as those now provided for state senators.

Rep. MacKenzie told the committee she was "amazed" at the number of persons who have told her they thought the legislature meets every year, and that many of them were shocked to learn otherwise.

She has sponsored a proposed constitutional amendment to provide for annual sessions in the last two previous legislatures, and has joined McDonald to sponsor one of the six now pending.

McDonald, first-term legislator from Newark, said in the three months he has served he has "become more convinced than ever of the need for annual sessions."

He referred to biennial sessions now held as "a heritage from our ancient past," and said the people of Ohio "deserve a full-time legislature and should be allowed to consider this proposal on its merits."

Lions Hear VA Address

Circleville Lions Club held its regular dinner session Monday evening and featured James P. Shea, veterans service officer, as guest speaker.

Shea spoke on "Dollar Economy vs VA Benefits". He told the group that the recent cut back of veterans' facilities was the worst assault on the veterans' system since 1933.

Frank Woodward Jr., president, presided during the business session. Appreciation was expressed to all who helped make the recent pancake and sausage supper and rummage sale a success. The membership decided the fund-raising projects should be an annual event.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the Lions Club Light Bulb Sale this spring. May 18 was scheduled as Ladies Night with installation of officers and induction of new members.

Taft Due To Address Annual UofC Day Fete

CINCINNATI (AP) — Robert Taft Jr., former congressman-at-large and unsuccessful Republican senatorial candidate last fall, is scheduled to deliver the 1965 University of Cincinnati Day address.

The UC Alumni Association said Tuesday Taft has accepted its invitation to make the main speech April 29 at the annual UC Day Banquet.

Los Angeles Mayor Nips Challenge by Roosevelt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles, an independent Democrat, easily turned back the challenge of Democratic Rep. James Roosevelt to win a second term as mayor of Los Angeles.

Yorty, who backed Republican Richard M. Nixon for president in 1960, led Roosevelt by a early 2-to-1 margin. Six other contenders in Tuesday's non-partisan election trailed far behind.

The Los Angeles mayoralty contest topped a round of municipal balloting across the nation. In other major contests, Democrat A. J. Cervantes was elected mayor of St. Louis and an Omaha businessman took a strong lead over the incumbent mayor who ran while under indictment on a bribery charge.

Cervantes, a 44-year-old insurance executive, defeated Republican Maurice R. Zumwalt by better than 2-to-1. Complete unofficial returns gave Cervantes 99,869 votes to 47,070 for Zumwalt.

Cervantes had been heavily favored to capture the mayoralty since he unseated three-term Democratic Mayor Raymond Tucker in last month's Democratic primary.

In Omaha, businessman A.V. Sorensen piled up more than the combined vote for his two opponents as he and Mayor James Dworak qualified for the May 11 runoff.

Dworak and four other persons are under indictment for bribe-taking and conspiracy. A Chicago contractor had charged a shakedown by city officials in connection with a $1-million housing project. Dworak and the other — two of them councilmen — have pleaded innocent.

Complete unofficial returns gave Sorensen 47,630 votes to 25,499 for Dworak and 13,366 for Councilman Warren Swigart.

The 55-year-old Yorty had to poll more than 50 per cent of the vote to win re-election without a runoff. Return from 4,622 of 5,055 precincts showed Yorty 196,432, Roosevelt 113,509 with the others way behind.

Roosevelt, 57, oldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, retains his seat in the House.

Los Angeles Mayor Nips Challenge by Roosevelt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles, an independent Democrat, easily turned back the challenge of Democratic Rep. James Roosevelt to win a second term as mayor of Los Angeles.

Yorty, who backed Republican Richard M. Nixon for president in 1960, led Roosevelt by a early 2-to-1 margin. Six other contenders in Tuesday's non-partisan election trailed far behind.

The Los Angeles mayoralty contest topped a round of municipal balloting across the nation. In other major contests, Democrat A. J. Cervantes was elected mayor of St. Louis and an Omaha businessman took a strong lead over the incumbent mayor who ran while under indictment on a bribery charge.

Cervantes, a 44-year-old insurance executive, defeated Republican Maurice R. Zumwalt by better than 2-to-1. Complete unofficial returns gave Cervantes 99,869 votes to 47,070 for Zumwalt.

Cervantes had been heavily favored to capture the mayoralty since he unseated three-term Democratic Mayor Raymond Tucker in last month's Democratic primary.

In Omaha, businessman A.V. Sorensen piled up more than the combined vote for his two opponents as he and Mayor James Dworak qualified for the May 11 runoff.

Dworak and four other persons are under indictment for bribe-taking and conspiracy. A Chicago contractor had charged a shakedown by city officials in connection with a $1-million housing project. Dworak and the other — two of them councilmen — have pleaded innocent.

Complete unofficial returns gave Sorensen 47,630 votes to 25,499 for Dworak and 13,366 for Councilman Warren Swigart.

The 55-year-old Yorty had to poll more than 50 per cent of the vote to win re-election without a runoff. Return from 4,622 of 5,055 precincts showed Yorty 196,432, Roosevelt 113,509 with the others way behind.

Roosevelt, 57, oldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, retains his seat in the House.

$1.46 Billion Rhodes Budget OK'd by House

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes' record $1.46 billion budget bill is half-way through the Ohio Legislature in almost its original form, despite attempts by Democrats to boost it by $165 million.

The measure appropriating funds to run the state for two years starting July 1 cleared the House 107-28 Tuesday after Democrats unsuccessfully attempted to amend it 11 times.

On the final vote, 34 Democrats joined 73 Republicans to send the measure to the Senate, in a move that normally signals the start of the downhill journey for the general assembly.

Legislative leaders now see the possibility of adjournment in about six weeks although action remains in both houses on the $185 million capital improvements bill.

A vote is near in the Senate on the House-approved $888 million Highway and Highway Safety departments measure. These three measures make up the administration's proposed money package.

House Finance Committee Chairman Ralph E. Fisher, R-Wayne, said the budget is in balance and that it contains $1.42 billion for the greatest outlays for health, education, and welfare in the history of the state.

Appropriations include $807.4 million for all types of education, $503.4 million for health, mental hygiene, and welfare, and $118 million for government operations.

The General Fund total exceeds by $200 million the spending of the current biennium although it includes $20 million in funds from anticipated voter approval of the administration's $290 million bond issue on the May 4 primary ballot.

Of the increase for 1965-67, $142.8 million is earmarked for education, $34.1 million for welfare and health and $3.1 million more for government operations.

Fisher said in regard to proposed bigger spending, that the budget is "based on fair weather estimates" of income within the next two years.

The bill differed in a few respects from the original administration version. The committee made one change to supply funds covering teacher retirement costs accompanying the governor's proposal for an across-the-board $200 a year teacher pay raise.

Action on the budget bill overshadowed other business of the day, but six bills were passed, five of them in the upper chamber.

Senators voted 31-1 for a measure by Sen. Tennyson Guyer, R-Hancock, requiring the use of reflectorized license plates.

Sen. Theodore M. Gray, R-Miami, Senate majority leader, cast the lone dissenting vote and said he did so because the measure lacked financing provisions.

Also passed by the Senate were measures to alleviate court dockets by combining related causes of action into one petition and convey 11 acres of Tiffin State Hospital land to the city of Tiffin for recreational purposes.

Sen. William H. Deddens, R-Hamilton, sponsored a Senate approved proposal he said would put state-chartered building and loan associations in a better competitive position with similar federally chartered institutions.

His bill would permit such state-chartered businesses to offer one-year investments and cut from 90 to 30 days the period required for redemption notices.

The lone bill passed by the House (action was postponed on four others because of the budget) would ban pedestrians and bicycles from freeways.

New bills introduced included one by Rep. Edward DeChant, D-Lorain, to require mental KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee's nudists disclaim firing the shot which made them outlaws and could bring another remarkable court case.

State Rep. Gaynes Morton pushed through a bill outlawing nudist camps. He said someone shot at him as he was flying over the state's only known nudist camp.

"I can assure you it was none of our group," said Jim — no last names, please — to a reporter. "We've been thinking of offering a reward for the arrest and conviction of a nonnudist Peeping Tom who shot at the helicopter."

Other new measures would place addicts arrested for possession of narcotics under state care, clarify laws covering solicitation for acts of sexual perversion, permit child welfare agencies to give financial aid to foster parents, and exempt purchases of the American flag from the state sales tax.

Another new measure would permit blind voters to choose a person to accompany them to the voting booth. This bill would liberalize present law which requires that blind voters be accompanied to booths by a member of each party.

NEW YORK (AP) — "From coast to coast," said Chet Huntley in "Terror in the Streets," Tuesday night's NBC special, "there is a feeling that American cities apparently have turned into jungles."

With that introduction, the television program moved on to a calm, statistical and philosophical analysis of the crime situation which tended to show that things are not as bad as we think they are.

While "crimes against property" — larceny, burglary and auto theft — have indeed increased dramatically, crimes of violence — murder, rape and mayhem — have not shot ahead of the population increase to any great degree, it was stated.

The premise leaned heavily on the FBI crime reports for 1963. Among other things it indicated that homicide rates have shown a tendency to drop and that there has been little increase in the number of forcible rape cases.

The program's experts conceded that there has been an increase in teen-age crime, but explained that the postwar baby boom has now developed into an "explosion of youth."

Assorted news pictures of victims were shown, but a Columbia University professor of social science and the head of a correctional organization suggested that the average citizen's anxiety was possibly induced by newspaper headlines, radio and television reports "out of proportion to the problem."

Pictorially, the program generated considerable heat — particularly an emotional interview with the mother of a girl brutally murdered in New York last year. Verbally, it shed a bit of light. But it did nothing at all to alleviate the frightened citizen's apprehension.

A Nielsen survey of television viewing in the metropolitan New York area Monday night indicated that the audience for the movie Oscar awards program attracted about three-quarters of the total viewing audience.

Recommended tonight: "The Holy Terror," NBC, 7:30-9 EST — Julie Harris stars in a drama about Florence Nightingale, on the "Hall of Fame" series.

Asphalt Plant Hit by Series Of Blazes

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — A 40,000 gallon storage tank filled with highly volatile asphalt mixture blew up, touching off fires or explosions in 11 other tanks Tuesday at the Byerlyte Corp. plant at Heath, near here.

By the time firemen could control the fire, more than half a million gallons of the mixture had gone up in flames.

Damage was estimated at $200,000.

The explosions caused scalding liquid asphalt to pour like lava over a large area. The 35 workmen at the plant escaped injuries, but Ben Harris, 57, of the Newark Township Fire Department, suffered burns on his lower legs after stepping in a pool of the hot asphalt while attempting to reach a fire hose.

More than 25 pieces of firefighting equipment were called to the scene, many to protect those of the company's 24 tanks which did not immediately explode or catch fire and others to protect Pure Oil Co. refinery tanks, adjacent to the Byerlyte plant.

Danish Ketch Is Delivered for Movie in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — For 40 odd years Alan Villiers has been going down to the sea in sailing ships.

The salty Australian is in port on yet another movie assignment, this time to provide passage for a stellar complement of New England missionaries in "Hawaii."

"The Mirisch people called me at my home in Oxford, England, two and a half years ago," he recounted. "They told me what they needed, and I said to them, 'You will have to go to the Baltic to find ships, strong ships fit for sailing the bloody Cape.'"

He located three sturdy ships in Scandinavian waters, but then "Hawaii" was postponed. Last year the film once more was put in motion. Villiers advised the movie makers not to attempt filming the sailing sequences in the real Straits of Magellan — too foggy, too far from a base of operations. This winter the sequences were shot close to the Arctic Circle.

Meanwhile Villiers had the task of sailing a Danish ketch from the Baltic to Hawaii, leaving the Baltic in the dead of winter.

"It was blowing something terrible," said the captain, "but thank God it was an east wind we could rise. We were five days to Plymouth, another five days to Lisbon and 23 days to Barbados."

So confident was he that he sailed most of the way through the Panama Canal, against all logic and a few rules. Sailing vessels are supposed to use auxiliary motors through the canal.

A jaunty, balding chap who has never lost his zest for the sea, Melbourne-born Villiers shipped out under sail shortly after the first World War.

His first experience with films came when he and a friend bought a full-rigged ship and made their own documentary in 1929. He learned enough to leave the filming to the pros.

His most publicized voyage was the sailing of the Mayflow-er reproduction to the New World.

OSP Auxiliary Conference Is Scheduled

Eight Local Members To Attend Annual Two-Day Meeting

Eight members of the Pickaway County group of the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary will travel to Columbus April 10, for the annual two-day state meeting, according to Auxiliary Captain Walter Pickel Jr., in charge of the local volunteers.

He said the following local Auxiliary members will join the anticipated 800 Ohioans in Columbus:

Gene Hoover, Harold E. Schein, Ralph R. Meinfelder, Floyd E. Bush, Marvin Jenkins, Aulton E. Carter, Walter Pickel Jr., Norman J. Leist.

Featured speaker for the formal session Sunday morning will be Ohio State University football coach, W. W. (Woody) Hayes. Dr. Carl Byers, well known Cleveland Educator and after-dinner speaker, will appear at the Saturday evening banquet.

The Highway Patrol Auxiliary has a total statewide active membership of 3,000. All are members of the American Legion.

Patrol Sergeant J. W. Pribble, commanding officer of the Circleville Post and supervisor of the local Auxiliary group, explained that the Auxiliary was formed early in World War II when Patrol manpower was depleted due to demands of the military.

Serving without pay, these Legionnaire Auxiliary Patrolmen contribute nearly 200,000 hours every year with regular Patrol officers in both routine and emergency operations.

Opening the session at the Columbus Plaza will be a briefing and discussion session Saturday afternoon, followed by a social hour and banquet.

Also on the agenda for the program will be Ohio American Legion Commander, Vernon E. Allen and Highway Patrol Superintendent Colonel Anson B. Cook.

Sergeant Pribble said the meeting this year promises to be one of the most interesting ever held.

Memorial Rites Slated For Thursday

CLEVELAND (AP) — A memorial symposium will be held Thursday in commemoration of the death of the Rev. Bruce Klunder, a white Presbyterian minister who was killed during a civil rights demonstration on the East Side April 7 of last year.

Four nationally known civil rights leaders will participate in the symposium at the Church of the Covenant, 11205 Euclid Ave. sponsored by the Emergency Committee of Clergy for Civil Rights.

Taking part in the three-hour discussions, along with local civil rights leaders, will be:

Dr. John A. Morsell, assistant executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; James Foreman, executive director of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee; the Rev. Andrew Young, executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spike, executive director of the Commission on Religion and Race of the National Council of Churches.

The Rev. Mr. Klunder was killed when he threw himself on the ground behind a bulldozer and the machine backed over him during a demonstration to protest construction of an elementary school in the predominantly Negro Glenville area.

The largest living fish ever recorded was a 45-foot whale shark taken off Florida in 1912, the National Geographic says. Estimated weight was 20 tons.

Casualty Price Tangle Explained

Public Has Role in Determining Cost of Insurance Policy in Ohio

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of four articles dealing with insurance costs in Ohio.

By JOHN F. WHEELER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans, who spend more than $2 billion a year for insurance premiums, have little idea who or what determines the cost.

Why does the same insurance coverage cost $6.10 a month with X company and $6.40 a month with Y company? Why is it more in Cleveland, less in Marion? Who do you call if you think you've been cheated?

The casualty insurance industry says the public determines the rates it pays for auto insurance, fire insurance, theft insurance, homeowner package insurance, etc. The Ohio Department of Insurance agrees. They base their arguments on what they call the experience factor.

In other words, if you insure 100 drivers, you charge each driver enough to cover the damages one driver will inflict when he has his accident.

So, in effect, the public does set the rates. But the public is not aware of this and hasn't the time or resources to consider it.

"We know from recent industry studies that about half our customers believe that auto insurance rates are too high. We also know that if one of our customers is satisfied with our service, he will tell three people and, if he's dissatisfied, he will tell 11," says J. Robert Oelberg, executive director of Ohio Insurance Information Service, Inc.

Fred Smith, health care supervisor in the state insurance department, the public's watchdog over the insurance industry, says most letters to his office start like this:

"My rent has gone up, groceries are up, clothes cost more so don't let them raise my insurance."

Smith says the state can do little to prevent a rate increase by, say, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, if the companies can prove they need it. The same is true for auto insurance.

Health insurance, however, is particularly touchy with the public. Its rates have also risen faster than auto insurance.

For example: In 1958, Blue Cross coverage for a single person in a group in the Cincinnati area was $2.50 monthly. Today it is $4.10. The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters say the rate for a certain-type driver in 1956 was $66 annually. Today it is $72.

There are some differences in setting health care and auto insurance rates. One is the public hearing.

Smith cites a case, Hospital Care Corp. of Cincinnati, Blue Cross for Southwestern Ohio. The non-profit corporation sought a rate increase in April 1964. Among exhibits it presented in filing for a rate increase were patient incidence, length of stay in a hospital, cost per day, cost per case, underwriting gain or loss by the month, financial experience, projection of the trends and calculation of rates needed.

Smith waves a 211-page transcript of a public hearing held at Wilmington on June 22, 1964 and says there were many, many objections to the rate increase but "nobody challenged the validity of the figures."

The department approved the increase.

The state has no other choice, he says, but to approve such a rate request after it determines if the facts presented to it are accurate. Under Ohio law, hospital associations and groups must go through the insurance department. But commercial health insurance companies can charge all the traffic will bear. Competition keeps these rates in line.

Insurance Director William R. Morris says there are still several areas in insurance where you can shop for bargains: Auto, casualty, hospital and accident and, to some extent, life.

If you drive in a rural area, your auto rates are probably less than in a metropolitan area. If you are a "safe" driver, you may get a better deal with a company that caters to safe drivers. On the other hand, if your company has had to pay a lot of claims, your rates may go up.

The insurance department estimates that an accident or moving violation will boost your auto insurance premium an average of about 20 per cent.

What about hearings for auto rate increases?

"Such hearings would not be desirable," answers lawyer Arthur I. Vorys of Columbus.

Besides, he adds, the law forbids making a rate filing public before it becomes effective.

"What possible advantage could it be to the public to appear at such hearings unless the public were armed with the statistics and know-how to show that the filing is inaccurate," he asks. "The public's armor is the insurance department."

Smith, who has been supervising insurance affairs for the state for more than 30 years, says his department can take legal action in cases where there is a flagrant violation of an insurance contract. But in cases where a customer receives shabby treatment, the department can apply only what it calls "moral persuasion."

"We can't say do this or we'll put you out of business," Smith says.

Star of India

Thieves Handed 3-Year Sentences

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Florida beach boys were sentenced Tuesday to three years each for the theft of the fabulous Star of India Sapphire and other gems from the American Museum of Natural History Oct. 29.

State Supreme Court Justice Mitchell D. Schweitzer said he accepted a leniency recommendation by the district attorney's office because the defendants had aided in the return of a substantial part of the jewelry. Each could have been sentenced to 21 years.

The defendants were Allen Dale Kuhn, 26; Jack Roland (Murf the Surf) Murphy, 27, and Roger Frederick Clark, 29.

The Star of India, the world's largest star sapphire at 563 carats, and the Midnight Star, another sapphire, of 116.75 carats, were recovered in Miami.

Still missing, however, is the DeLong ruby of 100 carats.

Making blankets and rugs is a relatively new art to Navajo Indians. They didn't learn weaving until the 18th Century.

INVITED TO BE AN ASTRONAUT—Sister Jane Edmund Callanan smiles in her laboratory at the College of St. Elizabeth in Convent, N.J., as she ponders an invitation to take astronaut training, received from the National Space Agency. She said it wasn't her element. She's the second nun to receive such an invitation by mistake.

OSP Auxiliary Conference Is Scheduled

Eight Local Members To Attend Annual Two-Day Meeting

Eight members of the Pickaway County group of the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary will travel to Columbus April 10, for the annual two-day state meeting, according to Auxiliary Captain Walter Pickel Jr., in charge of the local volunteers.

He said the following local Auxiliary members will join the anticipated 800 Ohioans in Columbus:

Gene Hoover, Harold E. Schein, Ralph R. Meinfelder, Floyd E. Bush, Marvin Jenkins, Aulton E. Carter, Walter Pickel Jr., Norman J. Leist.

Featured speaker for the formal session Sunday morning will be Ohio State University football coach, W. W. (Woody) Hayes, Dr. Carl Byers, well known Cleveland educator and after-dinner speaker, will appear at the Saturday evening banquet.

The Highway Patrol Auxiliary has a total statewide active membership of 3,000. All are members of the American Legion.

Patrol Sergeant J. W. Pribble, commanding officer of the Circleville Post and supervisor of the local Auxiliary group, explained that the Auxiliary was formed early in World War II when Patrol manpower was depleted due to demands of the military.

Serving without pay, these Legionnaire Auxiliary Patrolmen contribute nearly 200,000 hours every year with regular Patrol officers in both routine and emergency operations.

Opening the session at the Columbus Plaza will be a briefing and discussion session Saturday afternoon, followed by a social hour and banquet.

Also on the agenda for the program will be Ohio American Legion Commander, Vernon E. Allen and Highway Patrol Superintendent Colonel Anson B. Cook.

Sergeant Pribble said the meeting this year promises to be one of the most interesting ever held.

Memorial Rites Slated For Thursday

CLEVELAND (AP) — A memorial symposium will be held Thursday in commemoration of the death of the Rev. Bruce Klunder, a white Presbyterian minister who was killed during a civil rights demonstration on the East Side April 7 of last year.

Four nationally known civil rights leaders will participate in the symposium at the Church of the Covenant, 11205 Euclid Ave., sponsored by the Emergency Committee of Clergy for Civil Rights.

Taking part in the three-hour discussions, along with local civil rights leaders, will be:

Dr. John A. Morsell, assistant executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; James Foreman, executive director of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee; the Rev. Andrew Young, executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spike, executive director of the Commission on Religion and Race of the National Council of Churches.

The Rev. Mr. Klunder was killed when he threw himself on the ground behind a bulldozer and the machine backed over him during a demonstration to protest construction of an elementary school in the predominantly Negro Glenville area.

The largest living fish ever recorded was a 45-foot whale shark taken off Florida in 1912, the National Geographic says. Estimated weight was 20 tons.

Casualty Price Tangle Explained

Public Has Role in Determining Cost of Insurance Policy in Ohio

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of four articles dealing with insurance costs in Ohio.

By JOHN F. WHEELER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans, who spend more than $2 billion a year for insurance premiums, have little idea who or what determines the cost.

Why does the same insurance coverage cost $6.10 a month with X company and $6.40 a month with Y company? Why is it more in Cleveland, less in Marion? Who do you call if you think you've been cheated?

The casualty insurance industry says the public determines the rates it pays for auto insurance, fire insurance, theft insurance, homeowner package insurance, etc. The Ohio Department of Insurance agrees. They base their arguments on what they call the experience factor.

In other words, if you insure 100 drivers, you charge each driver enough to cover the damages one driver will inflict when he has his accident.

So, in effect, the public does set the rates. But the public is not aware of this and hasn't the time or resources to consider it.

"We know from recent industry studies that about half our customers believe that auto insurance rates are too high. We also know that if one of our customers is satisfied with our service, he will tell three people and, if he's dissatisfied, he will tell 11," says J. Robert Oelberg, executive director of Ohio Insurance Information Service, Inc.

Fred Smith, health care supervisor in the state insurance department, the public's watchdog over the insurance industry, says most letters to his office start like this:

"My rent has gone up, groceries are up, clothes cost more so don't let them raise my insurance."

Smith says the state can do little to prevent a rate increase by, say, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, if the companies can prove they need it. The same is true for auto insurance.

Health insurance, however, is particularly touchy with the public. Its rates have also risen faster than auto insurance.

For example: In 1958, Blue Cross coverage for a single person in a group in the Cincinnati area was $2.50 monthly. Today it is $4.10. The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters say the rate for a certain-type driver in 1956 was $66 annually. Today is $72.

There are some differences in setting health care and auto insurance rates. One is the public hearing.

Smith cites a case, Hospital Care Corp. of Cincinnati, Blue Cross for Southwestern Ohio. The non-profit corporation sought a rate increase in April 1964. Among exhibits it presented in filing for a rate increase were patient incidence, length of stay in a hospital, cost per day, cost per case, underwriting gain or loss by the month, financial experience, projection of the trends and calculation of rates needed.

Smith waves a 211-page transcript of a public hearing held at Wilmington on June 22, 1964 and says there were many, many objections to the rate increase but "nobody challenged the validity of the figures."

The department approved the increase.

The state has no other choice, he says, but to approve such a rate request after it determines if the facts presented to it are accurate. Under Ohio law, hospital associations and groups must go through the insurance department. But commercial health insurance companies can charge all the traffic will bear. Competition keeps these rates in line. Insurance Director William R. Morris says there are still several areas in insurance where you can shop for bargains: Auto, casualty, hospital and accident and, to some extent, life.

If you drive in a rural area, your auto rates are probably less than in a metropolitan area. If you are a "safe" driver, you may get a better deal with a company that caters to safe drivers. On the other hand, if your company has had to pay a lot of claims, your rates may go up.

The insurance department estimates that an accident or moving violation will boost your auto insurance premium an average of about 20 per cent.

What about hearings for auto rate increases?

"Such hearings would not be desirable," answers lawyer Arthur I. Vorys of Columbus.

Chamber of Commerce Week Is Observed Nationwide

CHAMBER EXECUTIVES — Here is the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors that is guiding C of C activities for the 1965 year. The directors currently are focusing their attention on observance of "National Chamber of Commerce Week" which runs through Saturday. The executives are, front row left: Dr. Richard Samuel, Charles Boggs, Robert Porter, J. Boyd Stout, Jack Clifton (president) and G. Ninde Lawson. Back row — Earl Palm (vice president), John Hill (Junior Chamber president), Charles Wellman, Alden Bray, Richard Penn, Mrs. E. R. Bennett (executive secretary), Forrest Thomerson, Dale DeLong, Robert Wavering and Julius Gordon. D. E. Goodchild was not present for the picture.

TYPICAL E-B-I DAY SCENE — This was a typical scene during last month's Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce sponsored Education-Business-Industry Day, considered one of the Chamber's outstanding projects. More than 200 business and industry personnel visited all four school districts in the city and county. Chairman Alden Bray termed the project a successful one and commended the schools for their outstanding participation. The visitation program started last year when city-business and industry visited business, industry and professional firms. The three-cycle project calls for high school seniors to visit business and industry establishments in 1966. The picture here was snapped at a local elementary classroom. Observing the instruction are several business-industry visitors (upper right).

C of C Seeks Community Improvement

Residents of Circleville have joined others throughout the country in observance of Chamber of Commerce Week which runs until Saturday.

Mayor Ben H. Gordon Saturday issued an official proclamation designating the observance in recognition of the important part Chambers play in the economic, social and cultural development of the city.

Chamber of Commerce Week is being sponsored locally by the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce. The Nationwide effort is being coordinated by American Chamber of Commerce Executives, the national management society for Chamber executives.

President Jack Clifton will outline the role of the Circleville Area Chamber when he appears as guest speaker at tomorrow's regular meeting of the local Rotary Club. The session will be held at the St. Philip's Church Parish House.

The president's subject will be "Significance of National Chamber of Commerce Week." He also will describe the many functions and accomplishments of the Circleville organization.

The executive panel is dedicated to improving executive efficiency, establishing a standard and maintaining ethical standards and working toward the ultimate aim of community improvement throughout the United States and continually raising the caliber of Chamber executive performance.

Purposes for Chamber of Commerce Week, Clifton pointed out are:

1. To create a public awareness and understanding of the purpose and need for the Chamber.
 2. To give recognition to the Chamber's staff and to the volunteer leaders for their constructive participation in community affairs.
 3. To further strengthen relations with organizations and agencies in our community.
- In making known the special observance, Clifton and Mayor

Directors Hear Talk on Issues

A rundown on the four state constitutional amendments that will be acted on by Ohio voters May 4 was presented yesterday when Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce directors met for a monthly session at the Pickaway Arms.

The address was presented by Charles J. Kraven, chairman of "Ohioans for Jobs and Progress." Most of his remarks focused on the reapportionment proposal, currently the "hot issue" of the four.

Kraven, associated with the Republic Steel Corp. and a native of Brecksville near Cleveland, described the reapportionment proposal and the objectives sought. He also defined the alternatives if the measure fails at the polls.

Attending as special guests were Kenneth Robbins and Dan Crabtree, members of the Chamber's congressional action committee. William Stout, Richard Penn and Dr. David Gold-

Gordon urged local interest and participation.

The day of the "town booster" type of Chamber of Commerce executive has passed. The successful Chamber of Commerce today is staffed by personnel specifically trained for the job.

A Chamber executive's professional training includes economics, sociology, psychology, marketing, public relations, public administration, city planning, zoning and numerous other special skills necessary to carry on a well-balanced Chamber of Commerce operation.

Some of the training is included in undergraduate work. Some of it comes as the result of attending one of the six three-year institutes for commercial and trade executives held at universities in various parts of the country.

Other professional skills are developed by participating in management societies — state manager's association and the American Chamber of Commerce Executives.

American Chamber of Commerce Executives is the National Management Association made-up of some 2,400 local and state Chamber of Commerce executives. It is active in the fields of education, public information and publications. It keeps Chamber executives up-to-date on the latest techniques and information which enable them to do a better job.

schmidt also were guests.

A PORTION of the business agenda was devoted to reports by committee chairmen. Commenting on various activities were G. Ninde Lawson of the congressional action panel; Alden Bray, education; Dr. Goldschmidt, membership; and J. Boyd Stout, public relations.

Bray reported a successful Education - Business - Industry Day here on Mar. 17. He noted that 208 local business, industry and professional personnel participated in the visitation to all four school districts in the city and county.

He extended sincere thanks for the outstanding programs arranged by schools for the special day and the hospitality displayed. He also commented on the important role the E-B-I program plays in the community.

Stout offered a rundown on activities concerning "Chamber of Commerce Week" which is being observed here. The event started Sunday.

Dr. Goldschmidt announced that his membership panel's campaign is in full swing. Ten new member businesses were listed.

Penn, chairman of the city-county planning committee, reported that his group has approved a motion requesting that downtown streets be cleaned at least three times a week when weather permits. The directors voted to submit a letter to this effect to City Council.

The 10 new Chamber member firms are Burton's Jewelry Shop, Charlie's Fresh Meat Market, Circle Auto Parts, the Citizens Bank of Ashville, the Tagg Motel, Figgatt-Smith Nursing Home, Roy Huffer Jr., One Hour Cleaners, P&W Togs and Tack and the Carriage House.

Levy Passes, School Plans for Expansion

CARLISLE, Ohio (AP)—The school board is holding a special meeting Monday to decide what programs should be reinstated as the result of the passage of a three-mill levy that had failed twice.

Voters approved the levy Tuesday by a 647-507 margin, barely reaching the required 55 per cent majority. The levy is expected to bring in $105,000 a year.

'Spruce-Up' Campaign Under Way

The campaign is on! — This is the word from Harold Anderson, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee heading up this year's "Paint - Up, Clean - Up, Fix - Up" project.

The special week is scheduled May 2-9. Careful plans are being made for the annual project.

Assisting Anderson with the activities program are Chester McKenzie and Keith Wagner. Many reminders and some interesting stunts are on the planning board.

A hint from the committee: "Don't be surprised if a lovely young lass cleans your front door glass and leaves a clean-up banner on it."

Wasted Effort

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Tired of his wife's nagging, this suburbanite decided to fix the drain on the sink.

He crawled under the sink with a bucket, opened the drain and got out all the water.

Then he started to clear the stoppage in the pipes. The bucket of water kept getting in his way. Finally, he reached up and poured it back into the sink.

Negro Claims Firm Tries Exploitation

CINCINNATI (AP)—Prudential Insurance Co. of America has been named defendant in a $500,000 damage suit by a Negro who charged he was exploited to increase business among Negroes here.

Charles S. Reeves filed the suit in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court.

Reeves said he joined Prudential last May after receiving assurance he would earn about $8,000 the first year on the job.

Reeves claimed he has received less than $500 in commissions and salary and had been forced to "undertake great expense in connection with said fictitious employment." He said he had sold $176,000 worth of insurance.

Ohio Juvenile Drink Curbs Show Results

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state liquor department's continuing crackdown on juvenile drinking is showing results, Director Donald D. Cook said Tuesday.

He reported arrests of both adults and minors charged with violating laws on juvenile drinking were up 61.7 per cent in the first three months of 1965 compared to the same period last year.

Department citations against liquor permit holders for violations involving minors increased 48.8 per cent in the first quarter compared to the same period in 1964, Cook said. A total of 283

CHAMBER EXECUTIVES — Here is the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors that is guiding C of C activities for the 1965 year. The directors currently are focusing their attention on observance of "National Chamber of Commerce Week" which runs through Saturday. The executives are, front row left: Dr. Richard Samuel, Charles Boggs, Robert Porter, J. Boyd Stout, Jack Clifton (president) and G. Ninde Lawson. Back row — Earl Palm (vice president), John Hill (Junior Chamber president), Charles Wellman, Alden Bray, Richard Penn, Mrs. E. R. Bennett (executive secretary), Forrest Thomerson, Dale DeLong, Robert Wavering and Julius Gordon. D. E. Goodchild was not present for the picture.

TYPICAL E-B-I DAY SCENE — This was a typical scene during last month's Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce sponsored Education-Business-Industry Day, considered one of the Chamber's outstanding projects. More than 200 business and industry personnel visited all four school districts in the city and county. Chairman Alden Bray termed the project a successful one and commended the schools for their outstanding participation. The visitation program started last year when city-county teachers visited business, industry and professional firms. The three-cycle project calls for high school seniors to visit business and industry establishments in 1966. The picture here was snapped at a local elementary classroom. Observing the instruction are several business-industry visitors (upper right).

C of C Seeks Community Improvement

Residents of Circleville have joined others throughout the country in observance of Chamber of Commerce Week which runs until Saturday.

Mayor Ben H. Gordon Saturday issued an official proclamation designating the observance in recognition of the important part Chambers play in the economic, social and cultural development of the city.

Chamber of Commerce Week is being sponsored locally by the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

President Jack Clifton will outline the role of the Circleville Area Chamber when he appears as guest speaker at tomorrow's regular meeting of the local Rotary Club. The session will be held at the St. Philip's Church Parish House.

The president's subject will be "Significance of National Chamber of Commerce Week." He also will describe the many functions and accomplishments of the Circleville organization.

Directors Hear Talk on Issues

A rundown on the four state constitutional amendments that will be acted on by Ohio voters May 4 was presented yesterday when Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce directors met for a monthly session at the Pickaway Arms.

The address was presented by Charles J. Kraven, chairman of "Ohioans for Jobs and Progress." Most of his remarks focused on the reapportionment proposal, currently the "hot issue" of the four.

Kraven, associated with the Republic Steel Corp. and a native of Brecksville near Cleveland, described the reapportionment proposal and the objectives sought. He also defined the alternatives if the measure fails at the polls.

Attending as special guests were Kenneth Robbins and Dan Crabtree, members of the Chamber's congressional action committee. William Stout, Richard Penn and Dr. David Gold-

'Spruce-Up' Campaign Under Way

The campaign is on! — This is the word from Harold Anderson, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee heading up this year's "Paint - Up, Clean - Up, Fix - Up" project.

The special week is scheduled May 2-9. Careful plans are being made for the annual project.

Assisting Anderson with the activities program are Chester McKenzie and Keith Wagner. Many reminders and some interesting stunts are on the planning board.

A hint from the committee: "Don't be surprised if a lovely young lass cleans your front door glass and leaves a clean-up banner on it."

Negro Claims Firm Tries Exploitation

CINCINNATI (AP)—Prudential Insurance Co. of America has been named defendant in a $500,000 damage suit by a Negro who charged he was exploited to increase business among Negroes here.

Charles S. Reeves filed the suit in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court.

Reeves said he joined Prudential last May after receiving assurance he would earn about $8,000 the first year on the job.

Reeves claimed he has received less than $500 in commissions and salary and had been forced to "undertake great expense in connection with said fictitious employment." He said he had sold $176,000 worth of insurance.

Ohio Juvenile Drink Curbs Show Results

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state liquor department's continuing crackdown on juvenile drinking is showing results, Director Donald D. Cook said Tuesday.

He reported arrests of both adults and minors charged with violating laws on juvenile drinking were up 61.7 per cent in the first three months of 1965 compared to the same period last year.

Department citations against liquor permit holders for violations involving minors increased 48.8 per cent in the first quarter compared to the same period in 1964, Cook said. A total of 283 persons were arrested for minors' violations in January, February and March of this year, compared to 175 arrests in those months of 1964.

The executive panel is dedicated to improving executive efficiency, establishing and maintaining ethical standards and working toward the ultimate aim of community improvement throughout the United States and continually raising the caliber of Chamber executive performance.

Chamber of Commerce Week is the second such observance of its kind ever held nationally according to Jack Clifton, president of the Circleville Chamber.

Purposes for Chamber of Commerce Week, Clifton pointed out are:

1. To create a public awareness and understanding of the purpose and need for the Chamber.
2. To give recognition to the Chamber's staff and to the volunteer leaders for their constructive participation in community affairs.
3. To further strengthen relations with organizations and agencies in our community.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Tired of his wife's nagging, this suburbanite decided to fix the drain on the sink.

He crawled under the sink with a bucket, opened the drain and got out all the water.

Then he started to clear the stoppage in the pipes. The bucket of water kept getting in his way. Finally, he reached up and poured it back into the sink.

Governors' Confab Slated for May 10
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes has rescheduled for May 10 in Cleveland a meeting of governors from eight states in the Great Lakes area to discuss water pollution.

The meeting originally was called for April 28. But Rhodes said a conflict of schedules of federal officials and governors forced him to reschedule the meeting.

Budding Music Composers Urged To Use Computers

URBANA, Ill. (AP) — A University of Illinois music professor has some startling advice for budding composers: Use a computer.
"Newsmen use telephones,"

Prof. Lajaren Hiller said in an interview Monday, "so why should musicians play a 17th century violin?"
Hiller has composed a number of works for the computer, including the recently performed "Illiac Suite," named after the university's $4-million computer, Illiac II.

4 Ohio Citise Are Okd For Youth Corps Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz today announced four more neighborhood Youth Corps projects for Ohio, in Columbus, Youngstown, Lorain and Martins Ferry.

The projects are to provide jobs and work experience for 1,418 in-school and 179 out-of-school enrollees between the ages of 16 and 21 at a total cost of $796,900. The federal government will pay $711,600. The rest will be made available by the four local sponsors, the announcement said.

"It's the artist's responsibility to deal with his own century and not in the past. After all, he is living in the century of science."

Another computer composer is Erh Lin, a Formosan who is a music graduate and a programmer in the digital computer laboratory.

"Today it takes up only one room,"
Eventually, he said, the computer will be the size of a transistor radio.

A composer then could simply feed his freshly written works into the machine and listen to an instant playback.

The music department recently sponsored a computer concert. More than 200 curious students attending.

Accompanied by a graduate school quartet, the computer played selections from Brahms, Bach and, of course, Hiller and Lin.

"It was really funny," said Madelon Magela, 18, a university freshman.

"When the musicians were up there the applause was real loud. But when the computer completed a number by itself, the people clapped a little," she said, "but mostly they just sort of looked at each other."

"They didn't really know if that was the thing to do," Miss Magela said, "applaud for a computer."

New Oil Drilling Rules Greeted by Criticism

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state's new oil drilling regulations went into effect Monday amid a barrage of criticism from the Ohio Oil and Gas Association.

The regulations are intended to reduce pollution of public water supplies. Oilmen are required to dispose of salt water, a byproduct of drilling, in a way to keep it out of rivers and streams.

National income in Spain has doubled in the last generation.

Yankees Picked To Cop AL Flag

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — This obviously is the year to pick the New York Yankees to lose. They have won five straight pennants. Nobody has won six. Al Lopez, Chicago's eternal optimist, says Baltimore, not New York, is the team to beat.

Yogi Berra has gone. Mickey Mantle is hobbled. Whitey Ford is getting bombed. Roger Maris and Clete Boyer are busy fielding warrants on the first hop.

Before proclaiming 1965 a golden year for the vast army of Yankee haters, a sobering glance at the rest of the league triggers a caution sign. If not the Yankees, then who?

Chicago and Baltimore look like the best bets. Cleveland is an outsider. Minnesota has power to burn but no defense. Detroit is so-so. Los Angeles has Dean Chance and Fred Newman. Forget the rest.

Chicago could do it if Moose Skowron and Pete Ward have sensational years and if Ken Berry makes it big. Baltimore needs a 100 per cent Wally Bunker and Steve Barber and an injury-free year from Boog Powell.

The Yanks won it last year despite sub-par performances by many of the regular cast. If Tony Kubek, Tom Tresh, Joe Pepitone and Boyer play up to their normal form, they should win again. Their regular lineup still is the class of the league.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. New York
2. Baltimore

3. Cleveland
4. Minnesota
5. Detroit
6. Los Angeles
7. Boston
8. Washington
9. Kansas City

Johnny Keane will have his problems with the Yanks but he is used to problems. Mantle probably will be in and out of the lineup with knee and hamstring muscle problems. Although Ford has been hit hard, the ace lefty insists his left arm does not bother him.

Mel Stottlemyre will be available for the entire year. So will Pete Ramos. Jim Bouton and Al Downing should improve. Elston Howard appears set for a super year. Maris must provide the big muscle when Mantle is out.

White Sox pitching is outstanding with Juan Pizarro, Gary Peters and Joel Horlen in the front line and Hoyt Wilhelm in the bullpen. The big problem is getting the runs. Skowron and Ward will carry a heavy load. John Romano should help the catching when he is ready for daily duty.

Baltimore, happy about the spring form of rookie Paul Blair in center, has solid power in Powell, Sam Bowens and Brooks Robinson. If everything clicks for Hank Bauer he could take it all.

Cleveland is being touted as the darkhorse of the year. Birdie Tebbets has some fine young pitchers in Sam McDowell and Luis Tiant and has added power in Rocky Colavito and Chuck Hinton to go with Leon Wagner. A healthy Max Alvis should be a big help.

Drysdale Gets Homer To End Dodger Famine

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Don Drysdale, who had traveled this route before, was getting nowhere fast again. You'd think a guy would learn that batting his skull against the stone wall that is the Los Angeles Dodger attack, gets you nothing but a headache. But Drysdale . . . well, some guys just don't learn.

The lanky Dodger right-hander couldn't have forgotten the six losses he was tagged with last season when the Dodgers failed to get him a single run.

But Drysdale trudged out to the mound just the same Tuesday night. He throttled the New York Yankees for five innings and there he was, leading off the sixth against Bill Stafford, in a 0-0 tie.

Drysdale is a stubborn sort, though. He wasn't about to be shut out again, even if his club hadn't scored in 17 innings. He parked one of Stafford's serves over the left field fence to break the spell.

Flushed with success, the Dodgers assaulted rookie Gil Blanco for another run in the seventh — this one on Al Ferrara's pinch homer — and Drysdale made the runs stand up for a 2-0 victory.

The seven-hitter was Drysdale's fifth victory against no losses this spring and marked the first complete-game victory for the Dodger staff. Sandy Koufax lost two route-going performances earlier.

The Braves battled 12 innings before losing to Washington 2-1. Catcher Mike Brumley had four hits and scored the winning run in the 12th when he doubled and then raced home on Sandy Alomar's throwing error.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's Rookie of the Year last season, homered and doubled as the Phillies ripped Kansas City 5-1.

In other games, Houston beat Minnesota 2-1, San Francisco clipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-2, Detroit shelled Cincinnati 7-2, St. Louis downed Baltimore 3-1, Cleveland dropped Boston 5-4 and the Chicago White Sox split into two squads which defeated Pittsburgh 7-6 and the New York Mets 3-1.

CHS Thinclads Romp to 96-22 Win at Groveport

Circleville's High School's track team provided Coach Jim Lint with some surprises yesterday as they romped to a 96-22 win over host school Groveport.

One of the surprises came in the broad jump where Charlie Martin, considered the Tigers top leaper, failed to place.

And three Circleville boys beat him out. John Thomas, out for track for the first time, had a leap of 19-feet one-inch to win the event. Second was Larry Payne with a 19-foot effort while Howard Dade finished third with a jump of 18-feet 11-inches.

In the high jump, Doug Pontious tied Doug Price for first with a 5-10 effort. Pontious was the leading scorer for Circleville with 19 points. He also won the pole vault with an 11-foot 6-inch vault, was first in the 440-yard dash in 56.5 seconds and first in the 220 in 25.8 seconds.

JIM WOOD, Circleville's splendid timber topper, won both hurdle event, as expected, and the 100-yard dash. However in the hurdles, Lint noted Wood had probably the slowest times of his career.

"The track was slow, Woody hasn't run much for about two weeks and nobody pushed him," Lint explained. "He actually walked across the finish line in both of the hurdle events."

The depth in the events was a pleasant surprise for the Tiger mentor.

Logan Elm Seeking New Grid Coach

Merrin announced his resignation to the board of education Monday night.

In five seasons as head coach at Logan Elm, Merrin has compiled a 33-10 record.

In 1962 the Braves won the Scioto Valley Conference under Merrin, who was named coach of the year. For the past two years the Braves have finished second. The Braves only loss last year was at the hand of Piketon in SVC play.

The board has not yet named a replacement for Merrin.

Most Masters Entries Expect Victory on Greens

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Most of the top contenders here for the Masters Golf Tournament starting Thursday feel the championship will be won on the greens.

Jack Nicklaus, the long-hitting bomber and the 4-1 choice in this elite, international field of 93, doesn't agree entirely. "You still got to get there," said the 25-year-old husky from Columbus, Ohio, today.

Nicklaus, a nonwinner this year, served notice Tuesday that he appears fit and ready to break into the winner's circle. He unleashed a five-under-par 67 for the par 36-36-72, 6,980-yard Augusta National Golf Club layout on a hot and sunny afternoon.

The 5-foot-11, 200-pounder closed out a round that included eight birdies and three bogeys by holing out a 40-foot chip shot from the fringe back of the green.

"It was a good round," said Nicklaus "but my short game was sloppy."

It was Nicklaus' first tour of the course since he left to spend the weekend with his family in Columbus. He had whipped the course five times last week with rounds of 68, 69, 68, 68 and 70.

"I left because I didn't want to stay here too long and get stale," said the smiling and jovial 1963 Masters king. "I preferred to work on my game last week before the crowds came and so I wouldn't be bothered. I practiced before and after each round."

Asked to name five chief contenders, Nicklaus pondered and then named defending champion Arnold Palmer, South African Gary Player, Australia's Bruce Devlin, Tony Lema and Billy Casper.

Palmer, who expressed concern over his driving and putting, picked Nicklaus, Doug Sanders, Devlin, Casper and Lema to give him the most trouble.

The defending king and record four-time winner is the 6-1 second choice behind Nicklaus for the four-day 72-hole tournament. Sanders, Lema, Casper and Player are bracketed at 8-1 in the informal odds.

"Then you can't count anyone out of this tournament," added Palmer. "They have to be good to make it in the first place."

Ohioan Resigns College Post

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Rider College's head basketball coach Bob Greenwood, who coached three straight winning teams, has resigned because "my desires for a major intercollegiate basketball program were in conflict with established college policy."

In announcing his resignation Tuesday, Greenwood, of Massillon, Ohio, said, "I wanted to drop some small schools from our schedule and substitute major opposition."

Greenwood, 35, said he had applied for coaching positions at two major universities, but he declined to name them.

Redlegs Tap O'Toole for Opening Tilt

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Jim O'Toole will pitch the Cincinnati Reds' season-opening baseball game next Monday, Manager Dick Sisler said Tuesday.

Sisler said the other starter in the two-game series against Milwaukee will be either John Tsitouris or Joe Nuxhall—despite the way Nuxhall was clobbered by the Detroit Tigers in Tuesday's exhibition game.

The Tigers beat the Reds, 7-2, scoring all their runs on 11 hits in the four innings Nuxhall spent on the mound. The veteran left-hander also issued three walks and struck out one batter.

Roger Craig and Bill Henry finished up in fine style. The Tigers got no more hits. Craig walked three while striking out three in three innings. Henry retired the side in order, striking out two.

Leo Cardenas did much of the Reds' hitting. The skinny shortstop drove in one of the runs with a double, and also had another two-base hit and a single. The Reds' other run came on Steve Boros' double and Pete Rose's single.

Al Kaline drove in three Detroit runs with a home run and a single, and Don Demeter added two with a two-base hit and a home run.

The Reds entertain Minnesota today in their last exhibition game before breaking up camp and heading north.

Celts Pilot Fumes after Team Loses

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Red Auerbach was smoking Tuesday night but it wasn't his usual victory cigar.

The smoke was coming out of the ears of the Boston Celtics' coach after his team lost, 109-103 to the Philadelphia 76ers and sent the two teams back to Boston tied 1-1 in the best-of-7 series of the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division final playoffs.

The Western Division final playoffs resume tonight with Los Angeles at Baltimore. The Lakers won the first two games of the series on the West Coast.

"This is a snakepit," Auerbach said of Convention Hall, the 76ers' home court. "It's a bush town. I've never liked it. They give you 10 orange juices for 11 guys."

"Okay, Red," said one observer. "So it's a snakepit, and bush, and you got only 10 orange juices, but how about that guy, Wilt Chamberlain."

Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1 star of the 76ers, was slightly juiced up himself. He scored 30 points, took down 39 rebounds, blocked eight shots and handed out eight assists. He simply overpowered the Celtics' Bill Russell, the NBA's Most Valuable Player.

Russell managed 12 points, 16 rebounds, had five assists.

Sam Jones, with 40 points, topped the defending NBA champions.

The third game in the series will be played at Boston Thursday night.

Westfall Tops MS 98-28 in Track Meet

Westfall won its first track meet at Madison South by a 98-28 score.

Pacing the Mustangs was Frank Sollars with 16 point. He won the high and low hurdles, the high jump and was third in the broad jump.

Dick Cook garnered 12 points for the Westfall team with a win in the 440-yard dash, a second in the broad jump and the 220 dash and a third in the 100-yard dash.

The other top scorer for Westfall was Tom Selva with 11½ point. He was a member of the winning 880-yard relay team, and also won the broad jump.

The Mustangs travel to Miami Trace Tuesday for a meet.

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — This obviously is the year to pick the New York Yankees to lose. They have won five straight pennants. Nobody has won six. Al Lopez, Chicago's eternal optimist, says Baltimore, not New York, is the team to beat.

Yogi Berra has gone. Mickey Mantle is hobbled. Whitey Ford is getting bombed. Roger Maris and Clete Boyer are busy fielding warrants on the first hop.

Before proclaiming 1965 a get-even year for the vast army of Yankee haters, a sobering glance at the rest of the league triggers a caution sign. If not the Yankees, then who?

Chicago and Baltimore look like the best bets. Cleveland is an outsider. Minnesota has power to burn but no defense. Detroit is so-so. Los Angeles has Dean Chance and Fred Newman. Forget the rest.

Chicago could do it if Moose Skowron and Pete Ward have sensational years and if Ken Berry makes it big. Baltimore needs a 100 per cent Wally Bunker and Steve Barber and an injury-free year from Boog Powell.

The Yanks won it last year despite sub-par performances by many of the regular cast. If Tony Kubek, Tom Tresh, Joe Pepitone and Boyer play up to their normal form, they should win again. Their regular lineup still is the class of the league.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. New York
2. Baltimore

3. Cleveland
4. Minnesota
5. Detroit
6. Los Angeles
7. Boston
8. Washington
9. Kansas City

Johnny Keane will have his problems with the Yanks but he is used to problems. Mantle probably will be in and out of the lineup with knee and hamstring muscle problems. Although Ford has been hit hard, the ace lefty insists his left arm does not bother him.

Mel Stottlemyre will be available for the entire year. So will Pete Ramos. Jim Bouton and Al Downing should improve. Elston Howard appears set for a super year. Maris must provide the big muscle when Mantle is out.

White Sox pitching is outstanding with Juan Pizarro, Gary Peters and Joel Horlen in the front line and Hoyt Wilhelm in the bullpen. The big problem is getting the runs. Skowron and Ward will carry a heavy load. John Romano should help the catching when he is ready for daily duty.

Baltimore, happy about the spring form of rookie Paul Blair in center, has solid power in Powell, Sam Bowens and Brooks Robinson. If everything clicks for Hank Bauer he could take it all.

Cleveland is being touted as the darkhorse of the year. Birdie Tebbets has some fine young pitchers in Sam McDowell and Luis Tiant and has added power in Rocky Colavito and Chuck Hinton to go with Leon Wagner. A healthy Max Alvis should be a big help.

Drysdale Gets Homer To End Dodger Famine

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don Drysdale, who had traveled this route before, was getting nowhere fast again. You'd think a guy would learn that batting his skull against the stone wall that is the Los Angeles Dodger attack, gets you nothing but a headache. But Drysdale . . . well, some guys just don't learn.

The lanky Dodger right-hander couldn't have forgotten the six losses he was tagged with last season when the Dodgers failed to get him a single run.

But Drysdale trudged out to the mound just the same Tuesday night. He throttled the New York Yankees for five innings and there he was, leading off the sixth against Bill Stafford, in a 0-0 tie.

Drysdale is a stubborn sort, though. He wasn't about to be shut out again, even if his club hadn't scored in 17 innings. He parked one of Stafford's serves over the left field fence to break the spell.

Flushed with success, the Dodgers assaulted rookie Gil Blanco for another run in the seventh — this one on Al Ferrara's pinch homer — and Drysdale made the runs stand up for a 2-0 victory.

The seven-hitter was Drysdale's fifth victory against no losses this spring and marked the first complete-game victory for the Dodger staff. Sandy Koufax lost two route-going performances earlier.

The Braves battled 12 innings before losing to Washington 2-1. Catcher Mike Brumley had four hits and scored the winning run in the 12th when he doubled and then raced home on Sandy Alomar's throwing error.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's Rookie of the Year last season, homered and doubled as the Phillies ripped Kansas City 5-1.

In other games, Houston beat Minnesota 2-1. San Francisco clipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-2. Detroit shelled Cincinnati 7-2. St. Louis downed Baltimore 3-1. Cleveland dropped Boston 5-4 and the Chicago White Sox split into two squads which defeated Pittsburgh 7-6 and the New York Mets 3-1.

CHS Thinclads Romp to 96-22 Win at Groveport

Circleville's High School's track team provided Coach Jim Lint with some surprises yesterday as they romped to a 96-22 win over host school Groveport.

In the high jump, Doug Pontious tied Doug Price for first with a 5-10 effort. Pontious was the leading scorer for Circleville with 19 points. He also won the pole vault with an 11-foot 6-inch vault, was first in the 440-yard dash in 56.5 seconds and first in the 220 in 25.8 seconds.

JIM WOOD, Circleville's splendid timber topper, won both hurdle event, as expected, and the 100-yard dash. However in the hurdles, Lint noted Wood had probably the slowest times of his career.

jump, the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. They also placed first, second and were tied for third in the 120 high and 180 low hurdles.

The distance event appear to be the weak spot at present, according to Lint, along with a lack of overall speed.

The mile run, the 880 run and the mile relay were the only event the Tigers failed to win in their first outdoor meet.

TOMORROW the Tigers will be at Washington C. H., along with Hillsboro, for a triangular meet.

Logan Elm Seeking New Grid Coach

Keith Merrin has resigned his duties as head football coach at Logan Elm High School in order to devote more time to his duties as head basketball and track mentor.

Merrin announced his resignation to the board of education Monday night.

In five seasons as head coach at Logan Elm, Merrin has compiled a 33-10 record.

In 1962 the Braves won the Scioto Valley Conference under Merrin, who was named coach of the year. For the past two years the Braves have finished second. The Braves only loss last year was at the hand of Piketon in SVC play.

The board has not yet named a replacement for Merrin.

Club Shots

The advent of spring was signaled at the Pickaway Country Club Sunday as over 100 golfer took to the links.

Dr. J. M. Hedges opened the season with a near hole in one on the 165 yard second hole. Dr. Hedges hit a four iron off the tee. The ball struck the flag and bounced about a foot from the cup.

Elsie Edstrom chipped into the cup from a distance of 30 feet with a 9-iron.

NEW LISTING
Lovely brick home situated on a large, well landscaped 1 1/2 acre shaded lot, and only 2 1/2 miles from downtown. This home contains five spacious bedrooms and full bath on the second floor. The first floor consists of an extra large living room with fireplace, large dining room, study, den, roomy kitchen with dishwasher and full bath.

The full basement contains a large laundry area and workshop. Two cisterns supply soft water for the laundry facilities. A large two car garage has an attached storage area and newly constructed stall facilities for two horses. A well fenced exercise ring is adjacent to the stalls.

This exceptional home is also equipped with aluminum storm windows and screens and is heated with gas fired steam heat. The abundance of flowers, shrubs, and fruit trees add extra beauty to make this home outstanding.

For the buyer who is looking for the very best in construction, location, and space, this is it. Shown by appointment only.

1. Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks and appreciation for acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our many friends at the death of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Steele. Our special thanks to the Defenbaugh Funeral Home, Rev.
Gierheart, Berger Hospital, employees of Eshelman and Purina mills, and neighbors. All have our everlasting gratitude.

Houston To Lack Scoring Punch

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Lum Harris is not the reticent type, but there is not much he can talk about when the subject is the Houston Astros.

There's good pitching, pretty fair defense and the magnificent new domed stadium in Houston. But aside from that the man who succeeded Harry Craft as the Astros manager can offer little in the way of newness.

"It's the same old story with our club," Harris said. "Good pitching and defense and short on punch."

There was more hope than resignation in Harris' voice, however.

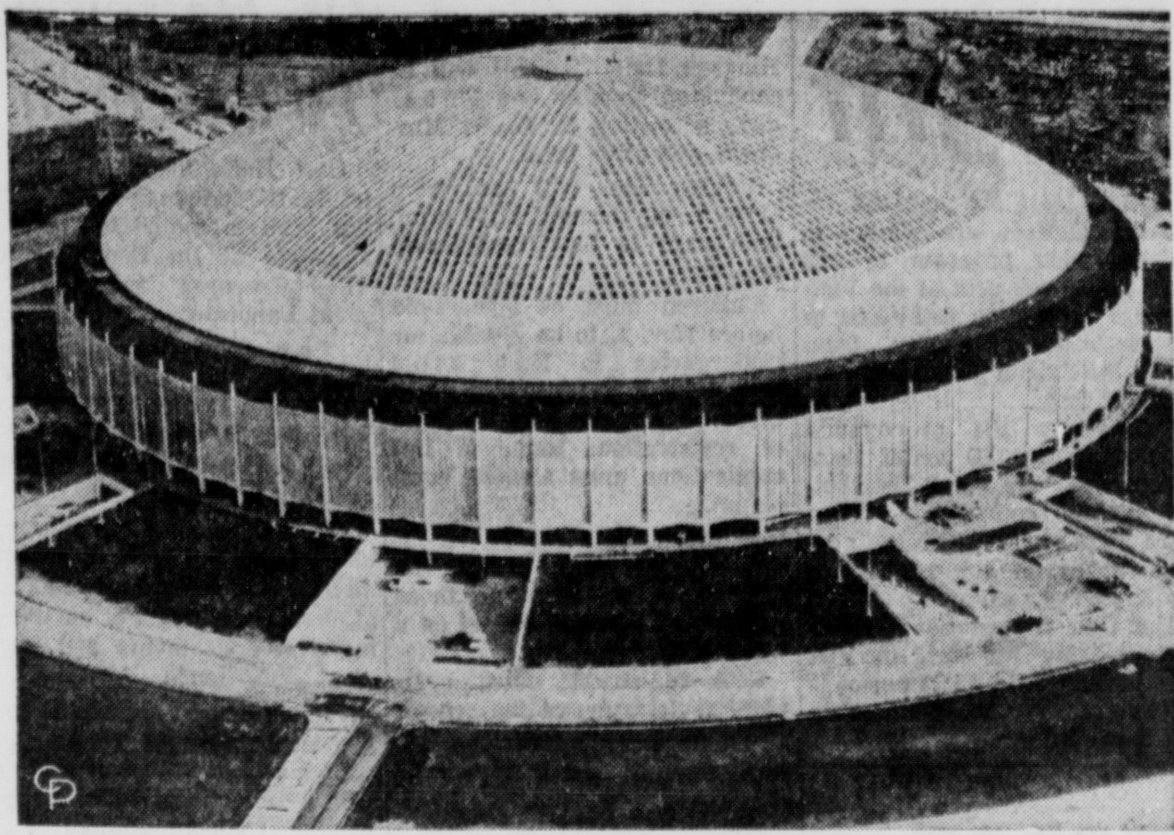

"I think we will be better," he said. "How much, I don't know. A great deal will depend on our young players, like Joe Morgan, Ron Brand, Rusty Staub and Jim Wynn."

Morgan, a 5-foot-7 speed merchant who was voted the Texas League's Most Valuable Player last year, is expected to replace Nellie Fox at second base. Brand, a $25,000 draftee from the Pittsburgh organization, apparently is the No. 1 catcher. Wynn and Staub will open the season in center and right field, respectively.

Morgan batted .323, hit 12 homers and 42 doubles, and drove in 90 runs at Oklahoma City. And he stole 47 bases.

Al Spangler, a good defensive performer with little power, will be in left field for the fourth straight season. John Bateman and Jerry Grote will support Brand behind the plate. Mike White, Bob Lillis, Ernie Fazio and Jim Beauchamp are the reserves. Fox, now a coach, may return to active duty.

"As far as our pitching is concerned, we have virtually the same cast," said Harris. "It was good last year but it could be better because of our improved defense."

"I think it is possible for our club to win 15 more games. That would bring us up to a .500 percentage and we could go on from there."

U.S.-Vietnamese Win Claimed in Big Fight

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese and U.S. forces today claimed a great success in the first major battle in months in the swampy Mekong delta south of Saigon. They reported 309 Viet Cong fighters killed or captured.

Thirty-five U.S. Navy planes prowled North Viet Nam's vital road artery to the south today and fired 20 tons of rockets and napalm.

A U.S. Navy spokesman said seven trucks were destroyed and four more were damaged. No planes were lost, and no Communist planes were seen. The Navy planes came from the carrier Coral Sea.

In South Viet Nam, 20 U.S. Air Force F100 fighter-bombers flew 20 sorties in Quang Ngai Province, 350 miles northeast of Saigon, hitting a reported Viet Cong concentration for the second day. A U.S. military spokesman said secondary explosions were noted in the area Tuesday.

Sixteen government soldiers and six Americans died in the fierce three-day battle around Vinh Loc, 130 miles southwest of Saigon. The fighting broke off Tuesday night.

The area in the heart of the Ca Mau Peninsula has long been considered Communist territory.

U.S. military spokesmen said 276 Viet Cong were killed and 33 captured. The prisoners included a Viet Cong captain. Also captured was a sizable supply of weapons.

Vietnamese forces and their American advisers had moved in on the Communists by land, aboard river gunboats and in helicopter airlift. U.S. Air Force B57 Canberra jet bombers and Vietnamese Skyraiders pounded the Red positions with tons of explosives.

The American dead included a U.S. Navy officer, a U.S. Army officer, and four crewmen of a U.S. Army helicopter which exploded when hit by Viet Cong machine-gun fire. Their deaths raised the toll of U.S. combat dead in Viet Nam since December 1961 to 327.

Vietnamese police and soldiers joined in a series of lightning raids in and around Da Nang, arresting 122 suspected Viet Cong agents, including the alleged leader of a Red demolition team.

Communist frogmen on March 26 blasted holes in the hull of an American LST unloading supplies at Da Nang, 360 miles north of Saigon. The ship did not sink.

In Washington, Defense Department sources said a bombing raid by U.S. Navy bombers on the Dong Phuong Thuong bridge, about 65 miles south of Hanoi, cut the single rail and highway line used to move men and equipment south for infiltration of South Viet Nam.

The sources said it may take the North Vietnamese years to repair the 525-foot steel and concrete bridge. In the meantime, the Communists will have to ferry soldiers and supplies across the Len River.

A reconnaissance photograph released Tuesday night showed the center section of the bridge collapsed in the river.

Washington sources also outlined a program of psychological warfare against the Viet Cong. At least six powerful radio transmitters are joining in an expanded program to win over the 50 per cent of the Vietnamese population estimated to be withholding loyalty from both the Saigon government and the Viet Cong.

To receive the propaganda broadcasts, 200,000 small transistor radios are being distributed in the countryside. They were built by the Japanese government as an aid project for the Saigon government.

The U.S. Information Agency is increasing its staff in Viet Nam from 28 to 75 Americans and is assigning 350 Vietnamese to the operation.

Debate Opened On Health Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House opened debate today on a $6-billion bill to give older Americans hospital care, low-cost medical insurance and bigger Social Security checks.

The measure, which carries benefits for some 20 million persons and higher taxes for most workers and their employers, is the biggest single enlargement of Social Security since the system was founded in 1936.

The package bill includes President Johnson's hospitalization proposal and much more. He has enthusiastically endorsed it.

Voting is not expected until Thursday, at the earliest. The first vote, under present plans, will be on a Republican move to substitute a similar bill — but one not using the payroll tax to pay for hospitalization. Instead, there would be bigger contributions by recipients and the federal Treasury.

The basic health benefit in the bill is up to 60 days hospitalization and 20 days nursing home care per illness. Everyone 65 or older, regardless of income or employment, would be eligible. The patient would pay the first $40.

The next benefit is optional, but Social Security actuaries expect 80 to 95 per cent of those eligible to sign up if it becomes law. This would provide government insurance against the cost of doctor bills and incidental expenses — but not drugs for home use.

The elderly person would pay $3 a month, either by allotting this amount from his Social Security check or remitting it directly. The government would match this sum. The patient would pay the first $50 of his annual bill, the plan 80 per cent of the remainder.

There would be an across-the-board Social Security old-age payment boost of 7 per cent, with everyone guaranteed a $4-a-month raise at the least. Spe-

Registration Set at Kingston

Kindergarten registration for Kingston-Union Schools will be conducted Monday and Tuesday, according to E. R. Murdock, executive head.

Registration will be from 11:30 a. m. through 12:30 p. m., both days in the Presbyterian Church. Children must be 5-years-old before Nov. 1, to be eligible for kindergarten in Kingston Schools and a birth certificate must be presented at the time of registration. Required immunizations must also be completed.

Murdock said today if it should be necessary to limit the number in kindergarten, those registering last will be put on a waiting list.

Late registrants must complete registration at the school.

Dr. Heffelfinger Promoted To Research Associate Post

Carl Heffelfinger, a specialist in the polymer films field, has been promoted to research associate at Du Pont's Circleville Research and Development Laboratory.

The promotion was announced this week by Dr. Robert L. Burton, Laboratory director. It marks the first such job elevation at the Circleville facility.

Dr. Burton said the new position is on the level of responsibility equivalent to recognition of Dr. Heffelfinger's outstanding accomplishments and technical competence.

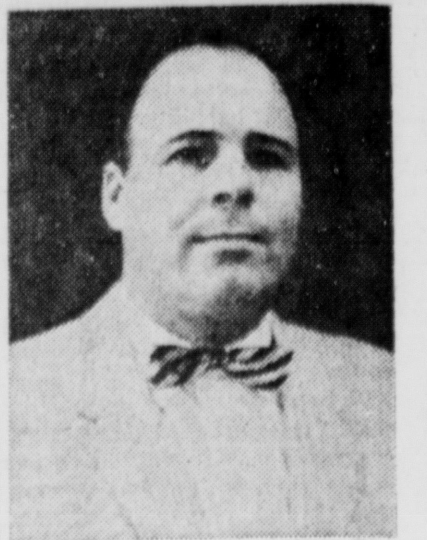

The research associate post provides increased responsibility for establishment of new research objectives, with corresponding freedom allowed for this endeavor.

DR. HEFFELFINGER previously served as a staff scientist here. He started with Du Pont in 1952 as a research chemist at the Yerkes Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

Assigned to the Circleville operation in 1954, he joined the research organization here in 1957. He was named to the staff scientist post in 1959.

Heffelfinger was awarded his Ph.D. at the University of Buffalo in 1953. He is a veteran of the U. S. Army, serving about three years in the South Pacific during World War II.

He and his wife, Lois, live at Knollwood Village. They have three children, Paul, Ann and Sue. The research associate holds several patents in polymer films and related manufacturing processes. Generally accepted as an authority in the field of polymers, several of his articles have been printed in scientific publications.

A member of the First Methodist Church, he heads the Salvation Army service unit here. Golfing is one of his hobbies.

Jury Asks Punishment For Delinquent Parent

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cuyahoga County Grand Jury, calling for a crackdown on juvenile delinquency, said parents should be punished for their children's crimes. This was one of several recommendations made by the jury Tuesday. The jury said juvenile delinquency has increased 50 per cent since 1960.

Solons Approve Rezoning Move At Marfield Site

City Council last night cleared the way for future commercial facilities at the Marfield property site at Main and Pickaway Sts.

The solons handed down a unanimous decision to reclassify the area from class B multiple residence to class C commercial. The Third National Bank of Circleville has already offered a bid to purchase the property as a possible site for future banking facilities.

Last night's decision to rezone followed a public hearing on the proposal. An ordinance requesting reclassification of the property was submitted to Council in early January.

The only question posed during the hearing was by Wes Edstrom, owner of Wes Edstrom Motors at 150 E. Main St. He expressed interest in the alley that divides his establishment and the Marfield site.

EDSTROM said he is concerned with how the alley will be used in case a new establishment has designs toward direct pull-in parking facilities adjacent to the alley. He termed the thoroughway as being essential to the operation of his car agency and garage.

The car dealer made it clear that he does not stand opposed to rezoning of the area. However, he expressed hope that equal use can be made of the alley.

A letter from Pickaway County's Board of Commissioners served notice that the county lawmakers have no objection toward rezoning the Marfield property. The Public Library across the street comes under the Pickaway Solons' jurisdiction.

The City Planning and Zoning Commission earlier expressed a favorable opinion toward reclassification of the area.

Spokesmen for the Third National Bank have indicated an interest in the Marfield property from the standpoint of future expansion. However, definite plans have not been announced. The premises, located at 166 E. Main St., entail lots No. 221 and No. 222, plus 42 feet from the south side of lot No. 223.

IN OTHER zoning matters, the solons received a petition seeking reclassification of 3.641 acres in the vicinity of 586 N. Court St. The request was made by John A. Evans, president of Evans-Markley Motors, an Ohio corporation that owns the real estate.

The premises currently are occupied by Kenny Hannan Ford, Inc., local auto sales and service agency. The petition requests the zone be changed from residential A to commercial C.

Additional legislative action saw the solons adopt three resolutions calling for installation of street and security lights.

The security lights are to be erected behind City Hall and the Service Department parking area at 310 E. Ohio St. The street light will be installed at the Sumpter and Beaver Sts. intersection.

One ordinance gaining approval an amendment to an earlier measure that concerned a performance bond furnished by the White Brothers Development Co. for its Sherwood Subdivision.

Debate Opened On Health Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House opened debate today on a $6-billion bill to give older Americans hospital care, low-cost medical insurance and bigger Social Security checks.

The elderly person would pay $3 a month, either by allotting this amount from his Social Security check or remitting it directly. The government would match this sum. The patient would pay the first $50 of his annual bill, the plan 80 per cent of the remainder.

There would be an across-the-board Social Security old-age payment boost of 7 per cent, with everyone guaranteed a $4-a-month raise at the least. Special provisions would benefit some widows, students between 18 and 22 and a group of old people who have some Social Security credits but not enough under present law to qualify for payments.

The existing state-federal plan for health care of the needy or near-needy aged under the Kerr-Mills law would be expanded.

The federal government would contribute a larger share and benefits would be extended to other categories beside the aged — such as dependent children, the blind and disabled.

Solons Approve Rezoning Move At Marfield Site

Spokesmen for the Third National Bank have indicated an interest in the Marfield property from the standpoint of future expansion. However, definite plans have not been announced.

The premises, located at 166 E. Main St., entail lots No. 221 and No. 222, plus 42 feet from the south side of lot No. 223.

IN OTHER zoning matters, the solons received a petition seeking reclassification of 3.641 acres in the vicinity of 586 N. Court St. The request was made by John A. Evans, president of Evans-Markley Motors, an Ohio corporation that owns the real estate.

The premises currently are occupied by Kenny Hannan Ford, Inc., local auto sales and service agency. The petition requests the zone be changed from residential A to commercial C.

No immediate action was taken on the proposal, although the communication was accepted and placed on file.

Additional legislative action saw the solons adopt three resolutions calling for installation of street and security lights.

The security lights are to be erected behind City Hall and the Service Department parking area at 310 E. Ohio St. The street light will be installed at the Sumpter and Beaver Sts. intersection.

One ordinance gaining approval an amendment to an earlier measure that concerned a performance bond furnished by the White Brothers Development Co. for its Sherwood Subdivision.
